Report California Man Is Kidnaped

(International News Service)

ARCADIA, Cal., May 10—William F. Gettle, 47, wealthy retired chain store executive, was kidnaped from his quarter-million dollar country estate today by two armed and masked men, according to Arcadia police.

Gettle and several friends were enjoying a party in the summer house near a swimming pool when the two kidnapers who had driven their automobile to a point outside a wall appeared suddenly.

They seized Gettle and James Wolf, rich furniture man of Westwood mills, after other members of the swimming party had returned to the mansion, according to the officers.

Gettle and Wolf were bound and gagged.

Wolf was tied to an oak tree and watched as the kidnapers lifted Gettle to the top of an eight-foot stone wall which surrounds the six acre estate.

Gettle rolled off outside the wall and groaned, Wolf said.

Police Believe Dillinger Was Fatally Hurt

Greatest Manhunt In History Of Country Is At Standstill Today

ALL CLUES HAVE BEEN WASHED UP

Dillinger Has Not Been Seen Since April 23, In South St. Paul

By THOMAS F. CULLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, May 10.—John Dillinger, phantom Indiana fugitive, was believed by many officials here to be dead or dying today in some remote hideout as the greatest manhunt in the history of the United States reached a virtual standstill.

After over two weeks of the most intensive search ever directed at a criminal, police and federal agents today had run out all the existing clues to the hoodlum's whereabouts and were inclined to the belief that he received the bullet that seriously wounded someone when deputy sheriffs at South St. Paul, Minn., fired on the stolen automobile in which Dillinger and two of his henchmen were escaping from Little Bohemia Lodge, near Mercer, Wis., on April 23.

May Be Wounded

Pointing out that after being shot the gangsters and his two accomplices abandoned this car, which was found to be covered with blood and stole a car from R. M. Francis, and later deserted it here, police said this was significant as indicating the critical manner in which one of the gang was hurt.

Coupled with these facts, officers said it has been established that Dillinger has not been seen since April 23, when he was identified at South St. Paul, although George "Baby Face" Nelson, one of his henchmen, was reported at Duluth, Minn., while Tommy Carroll, another of the gang, was seen near Mercer, Wis., and Homer Van Meter was identified as one of the bandits that held up a bank in Fostoria, Ohio.

Probably Fatal Wound

This, according to the police, gives weight to the thought that the ban-

COURT REFUSES TO REDUCE INSULL BOND

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, May 10.—Judge Will M. Sparks of the United States circuit court of appeals today denied the petition of Samuel Insull for a writ of habeas corpus and remanded him in custody of the United States marshal.

This means that the court refused to reduce the Insull federal bond which has been fixed aat $200,000 and the former public utilities king will be required to raise that sum before he can be released from the Cook county jail.

Insull's attorney, Floyd E. Thompson, immediately announced he would appeal the judge's ruling.

Thompson can now take an appeal to the United States circuit court of appeals (Judge Sparks was sitting as a district judge) and if turned down there can take the issue to the United States supreme court.

In making his ruling, Judge Sparks declared that the "main thing to consider" was the reasonableness of the bond to insure Insull's appearances at his forthcoming trial for alleged misuse of the mail and alleged violation of the national bankruptcy act in connection with the collapse of his $2,000,000,000 utilities empire.

"What is reasonable in one man's case may not be reasonable in another," said Judge Sparks. "The question of bond is not subjected to hard and fast rules in any community."

He explained that bond should in no sense be a punishment—it should "simply, reasonably insure the defendant's appearance in court."

INDICTS SON

Declining to claim exemption because of family connections, Mrs. Amber Bradway of Medina, O., sat as a member of a county grand jury which returned an indictment charging burglary against her son, Clinton, shown above. Despite her action, the mother and son are still friends.

WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—In California's race for governor there is the largest entry of different parties that even went to the post, Democrats, Progressive, Socialists, Prohibition, Liberty, Torie and Republicans. These last two are revivals of old time parties that have been out of existence for years.

On the darkest days there is a ray of hope somewhere in the papers. "A gigolo committed suicide." It may be the starting of a fad. Twenty-five scheming, designing, American mothers pulled every political rope possible to get their daughters to see the king this week in London. He asked to have a look at Sophie Tucker.

Bootlegging In Western Pennsylvania Is Target Of Agents

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 10.—"Revenooers" as they are known in the mountainous districts occupied by moonshiners were to begin a concerted attack on bootlegging throughout western Pennsylvania today.

TWELVE AND HALF BILLION IS DUE

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Future payment of approximately twelve and one half billion dollars which Europe owes the American taxpayers hung in the balance today as the administration flirted with the idea of finding some new debt settlement plan that would prove satisfactory to both the debtors and congress.

With President Roosevelt maintaining silence concerning what he has in mind, speculation was rife over the proposals he might make.

Roosevelt Smiles

These ranged anywhere from a ten billion dollar slash by virtually wiping out past and future interest payments to possible acceptance of tin and other goods in payment of the debts.

The president smiled at all of them, said nothing, except that his debt message to congress was a little

ARIZONA KIDNAPING REMAINS MYSTERY

June Robles Is Still Missing

Three Notes Have Been Received Since Girl Was Abducted

FEAR IS GROWING FOR GIRL'S SAFETY

(International News Service)

TUCSON, Ariz., May 10.—A painstaking sifting of all clues to the kidnapers of June Robles, was under way today.

Officers were questioning at least three persons in the belief they may have valuable information concerning the abduction of the six-year-old grand-daughter of Bernabe Robles, Arizona land baron, who was "snatched" fifteen days ago while en route home from school.

Meanwhile it was learned that the Robles family has received three communications from the kidnapers.

The first ransom note demanding $15,000 was placed in the hands of her father Fernando Robles a few minutes after the child had been spirited away in an automobile on April 25.

Notes Received.

The next communication came last Friday through the mail. The letter was posted in Tucson and Bernabee Robles, the aged grandfather, was told to cease active participation in the dealings.

The third and last note was tucked under the door of Carlos Robles, twin brother of Fernando and deputy county attorney early Monday morning.

It was understood this note renewed the demand for $15,000 ransom, declared the child was alive and would be delivered safely on payment of the ransom.

However the second and third notes failed to contain answers to a series of four questions which the parents had asked in an appeal to the kidnapers in order that they might be sure their child was alive and that they were dealing with the kidnapers. Because of this failure grave fears are entertained in many quarters that the child is dead.

Banquet Tonight

Tells Of Rotary Progress

In their morning assembly today International Director Mayhew, making the first of his two conference addresses, told the clubmen of Rotary's rapid growth throughout the world.

"We (Rotary International) were 29 years old 10 weeks ago," said Mr. Mayhew, "and I might tell you at this time that in the years of our service we have granted 3,764 charters to clubs. Rotary now functions in more than 75 countries of the globe."

Before treating the friendship and fellowship which Rotary promotes, the international officer reported to the district that since July 1, 1933 there have been 91 new clubs formed in 27 countries. The majority of those were started in the United States.

In the past nine months his figures revealed that 1,370 clubs of International have shown increases in membership. The aggregate gain was 6,215 members. On April 1, 1934, the total membership of Rotary International was 149,772.

Speaking of Rotary's part in developing in business men the spirit which President Roosevelt's NRA seeks to inculcate, Director Mayhew declared that "we, as an international organization, have induced over 180 business organizations to adopt a standard code of fair practice."

Goes to Jefferson City

Mr. Mayhew, millionaire lumber company president from the Southwest, will leave New Castle at the end of the conference for Jefferson City, Mo., to attend another district conference. He came here from another at Philadelphia. He will speak again on Friday.

At Jefferson City he will confer with Rotarian Robert Hill, at the present moment considered the most outstanding candidate for the 1934-35 presidency of Rotary International. His name will go before the Rotary voters at International's convention in Detroit, from June 20 to 23.

Conference Chairman Ralph W. Bolsinger, presiding at most of the general conference sessions, presided this morning.

Extends Welcome

Judge James A. Chambers, representing New Castle's public life and its citizenry, extended a most cordial welcome to the delegates just after the morning assembly convened. The invocation was given by the Rev. R. J. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Masontown. Pep singing was directed by Dr. C. S. Ecker, physician from Oakmont, with "Judy" Sypher of this city at the piano.

Responding to Judge Chambers' welcome was former District Governor Emmett Bailey of Oil City.

Other features which came after the opening ceremonies were the presentation of the conference officers who have directed the arrangements and who still are at the helm of the programs, and the presentation of past district governors and distinguished guests. Conference Secretary Carl E. Paisley made the convention announcements.

Memorial Address

A traditional part of all Rotary conventions is the memorial address dedicated to outstanding Rotarians who have died during the past year. Former District Governor Bert H. Smyers, in an impressive address, paid tribute to the memories of Charles D. Wallace and Harry White, past 33rd district governors, and to the deceased presidents of the Indiana and Midland clubs.

The morning session closed shortly after noon.

From the Pittsburgh district today came additional groups of Rotarians and their wives, almost 100 coming enmasse from the Pittsburgh club alone. They were present for the luncheon and most of them expect to remain over until adjournment time tomorrow.

Over 550 Register

Registration headquarters in the Cathedral lobby still was swarmed with visitors as this afternoon passed as late-coming delegates signed up. Before noon almost 550 had registered and by tonight it is believed there will be 1,000 enrolled. Girls from the Senior High School commercial department were assisting Rotarians in the registration work of which Welty O. Rugh is supervisor.

Luke Lea's 'Glory Path' Ends With Punishment

NASHVILLE, May 10.—The trail that led Luke Lea to the United States senate when he was 31, thence to a World war colonelcy and decoration and later to a dominant position in Tennessee politics turned abruptly today toward a North Carolina prison, a three-year fight for freedom lost.

Once wielding such tremendous political power that he was known as "maker of governors", the 55-year old former newspaper publisher and his oldest son, Luke Lea, Jr., were placed in automobiles which bristled with machine guns and rifles and were hurried by a secret route to Raleigh, N. C., where penalties imposed for bank law violations awaited them.

Lea, Sr., is under a sentence of six to ten years. His son has the alternative of paying $25,000 in fines and costs or serving two to six years.

They were convicted at Asheville in 1931 on charges growing out of the failure of the $17,000,000 Central Bank & Trust Co. and since that time have been in a constant battle of appeals and writs in an effort to sidestep the penalties, their contention being that they were "railroaded" because of prejudice.

Unsuccessful at every turn, they appeared Wednesday before the state supreme court, which had ruled against them in a habeas corpus action, and were committed into the custody of Sheriff Laurence E. Brown and Deputy Frank Lakey of Asheville.

Just as his car was leaving a reporter asked the younger if he planned to pay the $25,000 judgment and escape a sentence. "I haven't any money," he replied.

Mrs. Lea, wife of the elder, failed to get to him before the car sped away.

Steel Report Shows Boost

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 10.—Further improvement in United States Steel Corp.'s business was reported today when it was announced shipments last month jumped 54,800 tons to 643,009, topping the 600,000 ton mark for the first time since last December.

The rise marks a steady monthly advance from the low point of recent months of 331,777 tons set in the first month of this year. At the same time it compares with 335,321 tons in the comparable period last year.

April's shipments this year were the best for the month since 1931. Running far ahead of the 395,091 ton total in the 1932 period. April three years ago, however, returned a total of 878,558.

The corporation's shipments for the four months ended April 30 were close to double the 1933 figure, totaling 1,948,495 tons against 1,153,181.

DEBT SETTLEMENT PLANS UNDECIDED

nearer, that the debtors would be handled on their individual merits, and the government's position remained unchanged concerning its hope of collecting something.

Sources close to the White House continued to maintain the belief the president would "pull something out of the hat" before June 15 when Europe is due to pay another $175,000,000 on account.

Wants Assurance

However, it was felt in some quarters this would depend upon whether he was able to obtain in advance some assurance from the European debtor nations that they would be willing to resume full payments if he recommended a readjustment.

If the president fails to receive such assurance, he may drop the idea of presenting any new plan and merely submit a report to congress on the status of the debt situation, with a possible recommendation for readjustment of the debt owed by Finland, the only European nation to meet in full its obligations to this country.

Reports that the administration might be considering acceptance of some payments in goods circulated following publication of a letter sent by Secretary of State Hull to Rep. Caldwell (D) of Florida, approving the latter's proposal for a congressional study of the possibility of accepting tin in payment of the some of the debts, especially the British.

dit chief was the person shot, and from the bullet hole in the automobile, the amount and location of the blood stains in the car they reason that the wound was of a major character and probably fatal.

However neither the police nor the federal investigators will permit their belief to stop the search which has gone forward with such vigor since Dillinger escaped from the trap at Little Bohemia on Sunday night, April 22.

Gangsters Seen

Cleveland, O., May 10.— Three of the toughest members of John Dillinger's gang today were reported turning northern Ohio roads in a fast, light sedan bearing Illinois license plates.

They were Homer Van Meter, machine gunner for the outlaw band, and John Hamilton and George (Baby Face) Nelson.

Marshal Ray Bechtel, of North Canton, reported seeing the car containing the men on the Canton-Cleveland road.

THREE MORE RETIRE FROM GOVERNOR RACE

the tempo of their speech-making, stepped up the production of written and oral statements, expanded the quality of their charges and counter-charges. The zero hour approached and all contestants were engaged in the big "putsch".

Out of the heat and smoke of political warfare emerged, nonetheless, more sharply delineated issues and clearly recognized opposing personalities.

Easily the most vigorous struggle in the whole political arena is that being waged between United States Senator David A. Reed and Gov. Gifford Pinchot. The stake in this nip-and-tuck affray is the G. O. P. senatorial nomination which Reed is sparing no effort to recapture.

In Democratic Ranks

Contending for the right to fight it out with the winner of the Reed-Pinchot battle in the November election are Joseph F. Guffey, Pennsylvania's Roosevelt patronage dispenser, and Roland S. Morris, former ambassador to Japan. Because of the changing political allegiances wrought by the years of depression and the coming of the New Deal, the Democrats are highly optimistic respecting their chances of a November victory in this hitherto rock-bound Republican state. Hence, Guffey and Morris are waging intensive campaigns against each other to snare the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Two Dark Horses

In the gubernatorial field equally intense combats are being waged in both parties. Having won the endorsement of the Vare, Grundy and Mellon elements, Schnader rules as the favorite, but he is being hotly pressed by Shannon, whose following is strong and widespread. Concededly dangerous "dark horses" in this race are Charles J. Margiotti, brilliant and popular lawyer of Punxsutawney, and former Congressman Thomas W. Phillips, staunchly independent millionaire oil man of Butler.

REPORT CALIFORNIA MAN IS KIDNAPED

house toward the wall, Wolf said that he dropped his wallet containing $250.

Gettle said to the kidnapers, according to Wolf:

"I'll give you all the money I have on me and go into the house for more if you won't take me away."

Wolf said the kidnapers laughed and replied.

"That won't be enough. This is a kidnaping."

Wolf said that he was commanded not to try to break his bonds and give the alarm for at least an hour.

"Squawk in less than an hour and we'll kill you," Wolf said the kidnapers told him.

Within a few minutes he heard an automobile roar away.

Wolf said he managed to free himself in about 30 minutes and summoned Arcadia police who at once notified Los Angeles police detectives and sheriff's deputies of the abduction.

Gettle recently retired as executive of a chain store group and was understood to have become affiliated with a firm of brokers. Only a short time ago he purchased the estate from which he was abducted.

JAPAN SEEKS NEW VICTORY

News Service learned today, will protest any further efforts by the league to aid in the financial and economic reconstruction of China as recommended by Dr. L. W. Rajchman, technical advisor on China, in an eighty page report presented at Geneva yesterday.

Provoke New War.

Rajchman's proposals, the foreign office holds, might alienate Japan and China in the future and possibly provoke a new war in the far east.

The foreign office reached these conclusions after an exhaustive study of the Rajchman report. Japan objects to league assistance to China on these grounds:

First—That the fundamental grounds on which the league would proffer aid in stabilizing China might not coincide with Japan's views (virtually a statement of the Japanese "Monroe doctrine" declaration.)

Second—There is no assurance that the league program would work toward the salvation of China.

Third—The Rajchman report does not agree with the knowledge the Japanese foreign office possesses of Chinese conditions.

Suppose you are a winner. You merely beat a fellow who isn't as good as you are, and anybody can do that.

Darrow Attacks Policies Of NRA

Famous Attorney Says "NRA Has Not Taken Care Of Little Fellow"

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—A severe indictment of the NRA for the manner in which it has dealt with the "little fellow" in business was before President Roosevelt today—but it was so drastic in tone and policy that it will not be made public for the time being.

The report was written by that grizzled defender of the underdog, Clarence Darrow, and was signed by five of the six members of the national review board, set up some weeks ago to survey the results of NRA operations.

John F. Sinclair, New York attorney, was the sole dissenting member. He submitted a minority report, also withheld, and also submitted his resignation.

The Darrow report proposed a drastic reorganization of the NRA, the purpose of which would be to deal with big business and small business on different scales.

The president has referred the report to three different governmental agencies for study and report—the attorney general, the federal trade commission, and the NRA itself.

Just Scapegoat Insull Declares

Deposed And Indicted Utilities Head Says Newspapers Have Made Him Scapegoat

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, May 10.—"Scapegoat." That was the contention of Samuel Insull today as he sat, pajama-clad in the office of Dr. Francis J. McNamara, physician at the Cook county jail, and ventured a brief comment on his present predicament.

Insull was reading the newspapers.

"Now that the time is drawing close for a showdown and the real facts are to be brought out in the courtroom, there is a change in public sentiment," he remarked.

He suddenly checked himself. Then, with a strange mixture of humor and sarcasm, he said:

"I hold no illusions. There is no use crying about the whole matter.

"I have been made the scapegoat by the newspapers, who have poisoned the minds of the public in their fight for circulation."

BRADFORD NOT ON DAYLIGHT TIME

(International News Service)

BRADFORD, Pa., May 10.—Citing an act of 1887 limiting their jurisdiction in the matter, city council today definitely decided that Bradford will not observe daylight saving time in 1934.

Plan Proposed For Telephones

"Pay As You Call Policy" Would Be Used To Offset High Rates

(International News Service)

BOSTON, May 10—Adoption of a "pay-as-you-call" policy for the telephone and telegraph business of Massachusetts was advocated today as a solution for alleged excessive telephone rates.

Attorney Wycliffe C. Marshall, retained by the Boston Central Labor Union to plead the rate case of customers versus the American Telephone and Telegraph Company at a two year hearing recently completed before the Massachusettes department of public utilities, was authority for the new plan.

A reduction of present rates and their simplification is necessary, Marshall stated, because of their unfairness to subscribers.

Pay For Calls

For example, he said, subscribers would pay according to amount of calls they use. Under present rates they pay a fixed sum monthly with right to use the telephone call until certain limit of calls has been reached. Charges on all calls beyond this limit are too high as is the fixed rate itself, Marshal said.

Many subscribers using two party service at $3.25 or thereabout per month for 50 calls, use but 30 calls but pay as much as they would if they used all 50 he asserted. The rate should be based on actual calls made, he claimed.

Elimination of flat rate service, costing $5 to $6 per month, allowing unlimited service around metropolitan Boston and throughout the state is asked, except as agency exchanges in rural districts.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau informed the silver bloc in the senate today he was prepared to enter further conferences with them relative to the pending silver bills.

The White House and the treasury are agreed as to terms of a bill, the treasury feeling congress should lay down a mandatory policy but allow the administration to work out the application of that policy.

PRETTY SHOWER FOR MAY 17 BRIDE ELECT

Another very delightful pre-nuptial courtesy was tendered to Miss Prudence Sankey of Garfield avenue, bride-elect, by associate members of the faculty at Shenango High School, and several Senior girls.

The affair was held in the newly remodeled ball room at the Municipal Course clubhouse and was in the nature of a surprise shower for Miss Sankey who received a lovely collection of gifts for her new home.

Hours were spent informally with cards and music, the latter being furnished by Miss Margaret Hertzler, music instructor at Shenango, who is a talented pianist.

A dainty luncheon in springtime colors was a later pleasure, aids including Misses Anna Fleming and Joyce Gibson who instigated the party.

E. church at 7:30 in the evening and the ceremony will be performed in the presence of a large number of friends by Rev. R. B. Withers, who is a personal friend of the young couple and Dr. J. A. Galbraith, pastor of Epworth church.

EAST SIDE GARDEN CLUB HAS MEETING

The belated arrival of gardening weather has increased the eagerness of women gardeners to get out and work, and even the Garden club meeting can't attract the usual large crowds they have during the colder months.

However, the May session of the East Side Garden organization, Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Sherman Kitson on Beckford street, was attended by fourteen and the program was most timely and interesting. A profusion of snapdragons was used in decorating the house and luncheon at one o'clock was the first procedure.

Mrs. Sylvia Sturdevant presided over the business meeting following and roll call was answered by naming "Perennials". Mrs. Kitson was in charge of the program and she presented the afternoon's speakers, Mrs. C. R. Brenner who spoke on the subject of "Candytuft, Vines and Nasturtiums," and Mrs. J. Elder Bryan who told many interesting things about "Snapdragons, Calendulas and Petunias." A plant exchange featured.

NEW G. O. P. LEADERSHIP

THE coming meeting of the Republican National Committee to elect a chairman and organize generally furnishes an opportunity and a challenge which can not be safely ignored.

Many Republicans have emphasized the need for new leadership. By that they mean genuine guidance, under tested party principles, to encourage business recovery and protect the rights of the people. There has never been a time when the Republican party was needed more than it is now. Under our political system an able, alert minority, capable of detecting and pointing out errors, is required no less than a vigorous and courageous majority party.

This does not look to captious criticism by the minority, it does not mean filibustering for the purpose of defeating or delaying just legislation, and it does not and should not mean blind partisan opposition. What it does mean is co-operation in any undertaking wisely planned to promote the welfare of the American people, and by the same token it means organized opposition to dangerous departures from sound policies.

This is not possible without astute leadership and an organization committed to right principles. That is why the meeting to be held in Chicago on June 5th assumes great importance. The resignation of Chairman Sanders offers the opportunity to inject new life into the National Committee. It calls for new blood and it calls, more than anything else, for younger and abler men.

THE FALL CAMPAIGN ISSUE

One of the questions which is bound to be discussed in the campaign this fall is just how far we have traveled toward prosperity under the New Deal, and just how much the New Deal has helped us along the road to recovery.

Members of the Brain Trust and other supporters of the administration are already taking the position and basing their arguments on the assumption that such recovery as we have enjoyed has been due entirely to our abandoning the old policy of individualism and starting along the path of the New Deal.

On the other hand, opponents of the Brain Trust theories are declaring that we would have been much further along the road to recovery had the policies of the New Deal, with its regimentation of industry, never been adopted.

If the depression had been confined to the United States alone the Brain Trusters would have much the better of the argument. They could show that Uncle Sam is better off than he was a year ago, if we measure by business indices and not by the condition of his budget, and that therefore the New Deal must have the credit.

Unfortunately for this strategy, however, the depression was not a purely American affair. It was world wide, and there has been recovery in Asia, Europe and South America, without huge expenditure and without the adoption of New Deal policies. The opponents to the Brain trust are quick to point out these facts, as is evidenced by the following extract from an editorial attack on Professor Tugwell in a recent issue of the Washington, D. C., Herald:

"Professor Tugwell will find no lack of that "wide view of national and international conditions' which he says no single farmer nor any regional group is capable of taking.

"The figures we give were prepared by the League of Nations, economists and are predicated upon a world survey.

"The League of Nations' statistics show that the peak of the boom was attained in the summer of 1929, and that the low point of the depression was reached in the summer of 1932. Since then almost every country has been pulling out of the depression.

"Taking the 1928 averages as 100, the economists of the League of Nations have worked out a comparative index of industrial production for the end of 1933.

"Japan led the list. It was much higher than in 1928. Its index was 139.

"Great Britain was nearly back to the 1928 level. Its index was 92.

"Other countries were less than half way back. Belgium stood at 42, France at 40 and Germany at 35.

"And the United States at 32."

Of course the issues for the fall campaign are yet to be formed but after all the test of the Brain Trust's New Deal must be the chief issue. A great deal will depend on the economic condition of the United States this fall. If recovery should boom, the administration will be greatly benefitted. But if we lag behind the other important nations of the globe—well that will be a different story.

HE TAKES HIS CHANCE

Many Americans, doubtless, will have a fellow-feeling for the Long Island resident who wandered into a police court at Jamaica, N. Y., the other day to make out a summons, found the judge all alone and expressed his desire to make a speech.

Since nothing else was going on, the "court" had no objections. So this fellow got up on the bench and proceeded to orate about the NRA, touching on the Statue of Liberty, repeal, the stock market crash of 1929 and various other matters.

Then, having had his say, he took the summons he had come to get and went on his way, quite happy in knowing that he had gratified his urge to "speechify."

Most of us, at some time or another, feel this same urging. But many of us never get the chance, and while we might flounder around a bit even if we did, it would provide that much-needed opportunity to "blow off steam."

It is interesting to observe, then, that here was a chap who saw this chance and took it. Most persons will understand just how he felt.

TOO EARLY TO FORECAST

It is too early to form the conclusion that the coming summer will be an exceptionally hot and dry one merely because heat records already have been shattered.

But in view of the current weather trend we cannot resist pointing to the prediction made by Dr. James H. Scarr, chief of the United States Weather Bureau at New York, who declares a cold summer can be anticipated.

The reason for his cool forecast is that he believes the world may be passing through clouds of cosmic dust which diminish the heat of the sun's rays. Prof. Frank Schlesinger, of Yale, says we are not passing through any such clouds. One of them is correct in his statement.

But about all that interests the farmer and gardener in connection with the diversified opinions is to wish the clouds, if any, soon will bring some rain. It isn't cosmic dust that worries him at the present time, but that of a purely earthly nature.

NEWSPAPER MEN AREN'T CYNICAL

People talk as if all newspaper men were cynical.

Well, I've been in this business since the war, and I have met very few cynical newspaper men. I have met some cynical gentlemen who were working on newspapers, but they weren't newspaper men, and it wasn't long before they got off the paper and into something else where they thought they could earn more money.

I've never met an "average newspaper man" either. Nor any "typical newspaper men." . . . And I've known but one newspaper man who was like the fellows you encounter in books, or used to see on the stage before newspaper men began to get their plays produced. . . . Most of the newspaper men you read about are writing a book. I've known a few who have written books, but I don't know any now. Somehow or other the newspaper life has never been what fiction led me to think it would be. . . . It's quite different—and better.

But about that cynicism business . . . The dictionary tells you that cynicism means a snarling, currish point of view toward life. And that the cynical man is one who believes all of our actions are dictated by self-interest. It's true that in newspaper work a man does encounter great crowds of people who are like that. After all, he's on a paper and he's likely to meet many people who want publicity, want to see their names in print. So he becomes rather wary of the average run of people. But eventually he gets so he can spot the "publicity hound" almost immediately; and he doesn't become cynical all over. He is merely cynical toward everybody.

After all, cynicism doesn't develop from living with people and getting close to their hearts in joy or tragedy. The cynical man is almost always one who hasn't been square with himself. (I mean the older cynic, not the spry young fellow.) Somehow he has failed, he hasn't kept his promises. He has hurt other people, he has denied their dreams and his own. And synicism is his self-made defense, not against the world, but against himself He snarls because he hates himself. He wears the prickly, burning shirt of Nessus of his own choice, but he blames you for it. His self-pity has curdled within him. . . . And you don't find many such cynics in a newspaper office. Ask any newspaper man if this isn't the truth.

THE DOG DIED

A lady, having eight guests to dinner, told her maid to make mushroom sauce for the steak, but, on opening the can of mushrooms the maid noticed a very disquieting scum.

"Well," said the lady, "put a little on some toast and give it to the dog; if he eats it, probably it's all right." The maid did so, and reported that the dog had lapped it up and begged for more, and so was instructed to serve the mushroom sauce.

All went well until the guests were having coffee, when the maid came in with a white face and whispered to her mistress, "Oh, ma'am, the dog has just died." There was only one thing to do. The lady explained to her guests, called the nearest doctor to come with his stomach pump and, eight steaks and mushroom dinners were removed.

Then the mistress went to the kitchen and said, "Mary, where is the dog?"

"Oh, ma'am,' said Mary, still very white, "he is under the piazza, just where he was put by the man whose car hit him."

DON'T JUDGE BY EXTERNALS

You are surprised and puzzled at the associates that some of your good friends seem to value highly.

In analyzing them for yourself you cannot see anything about them that is pleasingly attractive or interesting.

It may be that you do not know these persons intimately enough to appreciate their fine qualities.

You judge by appearance and social good manners.

You are influenced by clothes and the way they are worn or perhaps by manner of speech or intimations as to social standing.

Financial reputation or traditional "old family" standing is your guide in making friends.

Political office means much to you, also.

You would better revise your standards of what makes a desirable combination in choosing associates.

Those in humble position include many persons who have high ideals of sincerity, fine impulses, undoubted honesty and good taste.

When you think of companionship you will get more from the person who rings true blue all the way through than from one with a skin-deep veneer of friendship.

BABY HAS TWO-INCH TAIL

At last biologists have for complete scientific study an unquestionable instance of a human with a tail. In January, says Dr. E. E. Free, a baby girl was born in London with a thin, curly tail about two inches long. The baby, whose name and parentage are being kept secret, was taken to a hospital where leading surgeons, biologists and evolutionists examined it. The tail is tapered to a point, seems to be composed of normal muscles, skin and other tissues with the usual touch nerves so that a sensation may be felt in it. The baby has been growing normally and regularly and to the scientists' surprise the tail has also. Whether or not it would continue to grow and develop the muscular power of a monkey's tail could be determined only by letting it grow. But this is not likely as the surgeons will soon remove it in the baby's own interest. It is a simpler operation now than it would be later on.

Freedom Does Remain In U. S. Some Examples—Pro And Con Clear-Cut Labor Program Urged

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, May 10.—One has to talk with Europeans to learn that some freedom does remain in the United States.

One may not even joke concerning the dictator in Germany, Austria, Italy, Russia. Nor may one speak slightingly of royalty in Rumania or Japan—or even in England.

A German editor wrote an innocent little story with humor in it concerning the Nazis. His journal was suppressed for three months and he was sent to a concentration camp.

Now, as it happens, there is much derogatory talk concerning President Roosevelt, at the moment. It is in Wall street. The air is thick with it.

Of course, some may say that President Roosevelt is suppressing Wall street. (Some Wall Streeters do say that.) If, however, a vote were taken in the nation today, the Wall Streeters ruefully admit that President Roosevelt's "suppression" would be popular indeed.

But nobody stops Wall Street's criticism—nobody desires to. Yet, at times, it must be galling to the president.

AN EXAMPLE

This discussion was brought up by a sight in Pennsylvania station, New York.

There, at this great terminal, Jesse Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, dispenser of hundreds of millions, ambled along to catch a train.

He tried to show his ticket to a gateman. But at the Pennsylvania station now all that red tape of showing a ticket has been done away with. Jesse Jones could walk through the gate as easily as Jim Jones may walk into Jesse Jones' office in Washington.

A European remarked to me: "In Germany I had to see 86 persons to get inside to see a man."

The Rooseveltian era will not be known to the future as bureaucratic, it looks now, but as a dam against absolutism.

ANOTHER MAN

Going on the same train to Washington with Jesse Jones, but not in company with him, was an elderly man who seemed to me to fit the description of Henry Morgenthau's father.

He was waiting at the gate for some one who did not appear—then carried his own bag down to the train.

His son is secretary of the treasury, he himself owns millions in real estate.

DARKER SIDE

But workers write and tell verbally of a darker side of the United States. They complain of "cruel suppression by the autocracy of business and the autocracy of labor czars."

If these workers desire independent unions (not company unions) as opposed to the American Federation of Labor, which they believe to be reactionary, they find not only corporations against them, but the A. F. of L.

The question of labor under the New Deal remains a perturbed one. Wall Street and the workers agree on one point—there can be no real recovery until a clear-cut program as to labor is enunciated.

Strikes are not symptoms of recovery. They are symptoms of illness and suffering in the body politic—suffering among tens of thousands of people.

DEFUNCT BANKERS RULE

A year ago this column was the only one to publish the disclosures concerning the Cleveland bank failures that now are made public officially through the senate banking committee. Ferdinand Pecora's investigators found startling laxity and alleged misdoings on a major scale.

When this writer made his own investigation more than a year ago, he found nearly every avenue of information closed to him.

Why? Big names involved.

"Great" railroad operators, "big" bankers, politicians.

It did not seem to matter that 450,000 persons had lost 300 million dollars.

But the thing that is not yet clearly brought out is this:

Without leverage on both major political parties, the two huge banks —Union Trust and Guardian Trust —never would have "got by"—and failed. The chairman of the board of one was treasurer of the Republican national committee. A vice president of the other bank "dictated" to the Ohio legislature and state administrations at Columbus, whether they were Republican or Democratic. And his bank was examined only six times in ten years. (The law called for several times a year.)

Both the Federal Reserve and the state banking department winked their eyes—and some of the important men who winked their eyes still are in positions of trust. Defunct bankers, already indicted, still rule!

That would be inconceivable in virtually any other nation. That, too, is a darker side of the United States.

MINUTE BIOG

An old-time progressive is up for renomination and re-election this year—and he faces a fight. Senator Hiram Warren Johnson, Republican, of California, is of course used to fights, but this one is likely to be a tough one.

Senator Johnson will be 68 next September 2. A native Californian (he was born in Sacramento), he has been a consistent foe of the League of Nations and the World Court, and it is his bill which forbids lending money to nations in default on debts to the United States that has passed.

Senator Johnson moved to San Francisco 32 years ago. The years since have been crowded. He gained his first national fame by fighting railroad grabs. On the strength of that Johnson was elected governor in 1910 and was re-elected in 1914. He was elected United States senator in 1916 and re-elected in 1922 and 1928.

The more radical progressives of this day do not believe Senator Johnson is progressive enough on various issues. He took no part in the Mooney controversy. On the other hand, eastern conservatives still look somewhat askance at him.

Senator Johnson might have been president. Twice he was offered the Republican vice presidential nomination. On one of those occasions Calvin Coolidge accepted.

Of course, the senator ran for vice president when Theodore Roosevelt ran for president on the Bull Moose ticket—but that fact does not appear in the official biography.

LIFE

To live is not to drink and eat
And brave the long years through,
Since life is never quite complete
Without a task to do.
For there are failures to be known
And disappointment's pain,
And hurts that man must bear alone
If pleasure he would gain.

'Tis not enough to breathe the air
And walk the town about,
There's something in the weight of care
Man cannot live without.
There's something when the tear drops start
Which gives a man a sense
Of knowledge of the human heart
Past mere intelligence.

For growing old is growing wise
In grief and pain and care,
And learning how much danger lies
About us everywhere.
Both humble lives and great careers
Are built on many woes
And many smiles and many tears
The wild beast never knows.

A vast experience is life
Of pleasure and despair,
Of gain and loss and peace and strife,
Gay youth and silvered hair.
If man could eat and drink and stay
Where sorrows never fall,
And never suffer, he would say
He hadn't lived at all.

Pennsylvania Gets Coal But No Food Relief Last Month

Ohio Given Large Supply Of Food Products, Beside Coal, Records Show

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—Pennsylvania didn't fare so well in the distribution of foodstuffs by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration last month, to judge by a report of the Administration just released.

The only assignment to the Keystone State was 24,491 tons of coal. The Administration distributed 40,457,166 pounds of various foodstuffs and 1,178,579 bushels of feed grain. but none of this went to Pennsylvania. The food products going to the other states included smoked pork, lard, flour, butter, cereal foods, and citrus fruits, and syrup.

Ohio was given 1,024,782 pounds of pork, 388,080 pounds of lard, 36,000 gallons of syrup, and 715 tons of coal. West Virginia got 525,000 pounds of pork, 215,600 pounds of flour, and 27,000 gallons of syrup.

Here's why-Luckies do not dry out

why-Luckies are All-Ways kind to your throat

The difference between cigarettes is the difference between what goes into them and how they are put together.

Luckies use only the clean, center leaves, for these are the mildest leaves—they taste better. That's why farmers are paid higher prices for them. And Luckies get the benefit of the famous process—"It's toasted"—for your throat protection.

And every Lucky is round, firm and fully packed. That's why Luckies "keep in condition"—that's why you'll find that Luckies do not dry out—an important point to every smoker.

Yes, Luckies are always in all-ways kind to your throat.

AIDE SOCIETY WORK PROGRESSES WEEKLY

Jameson Memorial Hospital Aide Society is more than usual in the limelight this week for with the annual Drive made by the organization all over the city and county progressing favorably, attention is directed to the really splendid work this group of women is doing in connection with the weekly sewing every Wednesday morning.

With enough material already cut, yesterday, seven sewing machines were kept busily humming from 9 to 12 o'clock by a group of the ever faithful women who go up every week, augmented by some of the Circulating Book Club members.

The need for the linen supply which this Aide society supplies is 40 percent greater this year, than in any previous year, and so the work goes unceasingly on, as the need is an ever present one. 7,000 articles were completed by the society last year, 27,178 items totaling the production in the four and one half years, the organization has been functioning.

A dollar contribution is a very small sum to donate to this magnificent work and it is hoped that in the report of the Drive when completed next week, it will be found that results will be more encouraging than ever, for it helps, wonderfully, to know that others are willing and ready to help financially, this particular group of many of New Castle's prominent citizens who give unselfishly of their time every week as well as their money.

In the Good Old Days"—In the eighteenth century, in England, a wife who killed her husband was punished by being burned at stake. HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN
The Favor of Other Men
Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.
But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of this poison that destroys your personal charm. They can't do it, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cosmetics won't help at all.
Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.

PROMISES
It is one thing to make extravagant promises in a political campaign and an entirely different thing to fulfill them. The intelligent voter will scan carefully the promises of candidates for governor this year, remembering that the man who promises everything usually produces nothing.
Edward C. Shannon has made no promises except such promises as he could fulfill. He knows government because he has served well as Lieutenant-Governor. He has an executive's training for he has given his life to the management of an industrial plant. He knows men because he has worked with them, served with them and fought with them.
His record is one that has defied the closest scrutiny of those who would defeat him. He stands out today as the logical man for the Republicans to nominate on Tuesday, May 15, for the governorship.

"BY THE PEOPLE"

Government "by the people" is not just a phrase. It means something, and it means more today than it ever meant before. The people of Pennsylvania and the United States are tired of government by the few for the few. They are disgusted with bossism and ring control. They have shown a desire to be governed by the people, the ordinary people who know what it is to work for a living. This is no time to send people to Harrisburg who are out of touch with the ordinary man in the street. It is time to send somebody to Harrisburg who knows the ordinary man and woman, who has a sympathetic understanding of his problems, who will vote and work for legislation designed to help him. As an ordinary citizen I solicit your vote for the Republican nomination for General Assembly.

ERIE, Pa., May 10—The value of watch-dogs to Dominick Gangemi is practically nil today.

No More Piles

Doctor's Prescription Guaranteed

Thousands of Pile sufferers do not know that the cause of Piles is internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel.

This is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories do not give lasting relief, why cutting does not remove the cause.

Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only go when you actually remove the cause. External treatments can't do this—an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, sold by good druggists everywhere succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the affected parts.

So why waste time on external remedies or worry about an operation when Eckerd's Cut Rate and New Castle Drug Co. invite every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID with guarantee of money-back if not joyfully satisfied with the help one bottle gives.

Considerable data regarding each site, the size and possible price at which it can be obtained, is already in the hands of the commissioners. While it is realized that there is likely to be considerable differences of opinion as regards a site, it is certain that none that can be selected will come in for as much criticism as the site which was turned down. None of the other sites are located in an industrial part of the city.

Norma Millen Had Part In Plotting Holdup, Is Claim

Name Of Minister's Daughter Is Injected Into Trial Of Bank Robbers

STATE DETECTIVE DROPS BOMBSHELL

By DAVIS P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

DEDHAM, Mass., May 10—Norma Brighton Millen, violet-eyed, 19-year-old minister's daughter, who played with fire, was right-in-the-middle today.

Etched on the court record of her young husband's murder trial was the story of how she sat in with him and his brother—Murton and Irving Millen—and Abe Faber as they plotted the holdup of the Needham Trust company. Two policemen were killed by machine-gun bullets during the robbery.

Full Knowledge

The confession of Faber, so bitterly fought for a week by defense counsel, brought forth this testimony that the young high school beauty had full knowledge of the crime.

State Detective Joseph Ferrari dropped the verbal dynamite from the witness stand. It caused the apathetic Abe, the chizel-faced Murt and the slump-shouldered Irving to strain nervously on their handcuff chain in the iron prisoner's cage.

The linking of Norma with the Needham Robbert and murder—and its possible consequences to her—suggestion the real reason why defense counsel used every legal strategy to forestall admission into evidence of the Faber confession.

Norma is in the same jail housing the Millen brothers and Faber. She is charged with being an accessory and is scheduled to go on trial after the Millen-Faber case.

Gifford Protests New Commission

President Of A. T. & T. Says New Federal Commission Would Ruin Business

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Establishment of a federal communications commission vested with drastic regulatory powers, will disorganize the telephone business, Walter S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co., charged today before the house interstate commerce committee.

He appeared in opposition to the bill by Rep. Rayburn (D) of Texas, which would place the nation's communications systems under government control.

Gifford testified the A. T. and T. and its associated companies, comprising the Bell system, own and operate about 85 per cent of the telephone service of the country.

"Regulation is now new to us," he said. "From the beginning we have welcomed it. We are now regulated by 45 state commissions, many municipalties and by the interstate commerce commission. Within the past year, we have become further regulated through the NIRA and the Securities act.

Decentralized Basis

Gifford characterized the Bell system as a business operated on a decentralized basis.

"The Bell system is one organic whole—reasearch, engineering, manufacture, supply and operation," he testified. "In the conduct of the business, responsibility is decentralized.

"The injection of a commission with a veto power between these functions, as this bill does, will disorganize the telephone business, for I am certain that no power on earth can insure effective management and good service if it is necessary that the ordinary transactions of this nation-wide enterprise shall wait upon hearings before a commission in Washington."

Huge Crowd Of Scout Leaders Coming Friday

Will Take Regional Training Course At Camp John M. Phillips

WOMEN ARE COMING FROM MANY CITIES

Swelling beyond all expectations, the number of Girl Scout troop leaders and the staff of instructors that will be accommodated at Camp John M. Phillips, Kennedy's Mills, this week-end, today reached the grand total of 113.

Although the camp capacity is 100; room will be made for the additional group.

The delegation represents Girl Scout Leaders' Association in numerous cities and communities stretching from Erie down to Pittsburgh and over to Cumberland, Md. and is coming to the Lawrence county camp for the purpose of taking a spring regional camp training course under the supervision of Miss Jeanne Christy, of the national staff. Similar week-end training camps are being conducted at about this time in four other parts of this "region" which consists of Pennsylvania, Maryland, District of Columbia, Delaware and Virginia.

Ninety-two of the 113 women enrolled are troop leaders, 10 are instructors and the rest are special assistants from New Castle.

Only 4 New Castle Girl Scout leaders are taking the training course because most are planning to take a more lengthy course later. Those enrolled this week-end are: Mrs. E. W. Guy, Mrs. George Westlake, Mrs George Short and Mrs. Ray Tannehill.

Miss Regina Popp and Miss Elizabeth Reis will be in charge of beginners' handcraft and will spend the week-end at the camp, as will Mrs. Andrew Dodds, who is in charge of the canteen and Miss Helen Wilson, camp nurse. Mrs. Klee will be the camp cook and Sandy Howard, both of New Castle, the camp handyman. Mrs. George Westlake will be in charge of the pep singing.

Miss Elizabeth Reis is not only chairman of the local camp committee but is a member of the regional camp committee.

Eight of the older Girl Scouts are going to do the campers a good-turn by taking the serving and dishwashing responsibilities. They are Beatrice Conner, Ruth Conner, Edna Raney, Margaret Porteous, Jean Copeland, Wanda Hanna, Donna Van Horn and Marian Ramsey. These girls will leave for the camp Friday after school and will not return until the training course ends on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jeanne Christy will arrive from Pittsburgh this afternoon and with Mrs. W. H. Hanger, local Girl Scout commissioner, and a group of instructors and local council members will go to Camp Phillips to make some last minute touch-ups in preparation for the influx of the large crowd of women Friday afternoon.

ADVICE TO DRUGGISTS FROM AN AUTHORITY

(International News Service)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 10.—"Try selling drugs."

That was the advice of Prof. Anton Hogstad, Jr., of St. Louis, chairman of the national pharmacy week executive committee, to a gathering of druggists here.

Instead of grumbling over financial ills, Hogstad said, druggists should remove the beer, malted milk, washboards, potato mashers, ladies' hose and men's shirts from their show windows and install an attractive display of medicines and other things that would make a drug store look like a drug store instead of a department store.

Committee Named For Milk Control In Western Area

Committee Will Investigate Violations Of State Milk Control Act

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 10.—Distribution of milk and other dairy products today came under the scrutiny of a committee named to act on violations of the milk control board and prevent "chiseling" by representatives from 18 western Pennsylvania counties.

Determined to see that provisions of the milk control law are enforced in the western region, the dairymen representatives appointed a committee of three producers, Raymond Steele of Westmoreland county, A. S. Marburger of Butler county and A. B. Craig of Allegheny county, and two distributors, Arthur Pettibone of Rochester and Roy Lofstrom of McKeesport.

The Rev. Robert L. Cocklin, representing the state milk control board, said the committee's chief purpose was to increase the remuneration to the farmer.

Methodist Night Observed At Croton

Visiting Pastors Bring Greetings On Occasion Of Fortieth Anniversary

Wednesday evening was "Methodist Night," in connection with the Fortieth Anniversary of the Croton M. E. church, when visiting pastors from the district brought greetings from the various surrounding churches.

Dr. C. G. Farr, of Grove City, district superintendent presided, and short addresses were made by Dr. Norris A. White, Rev. W. H. Downing, Rev. V. L. Bloomquist, and Rev. Robert Withers, and the pastor Rev. C. S. Joshua.

Dr. White recalled the fact that the first preaching assignment he had in the Erie conference was at Croton church back in 1898, when he supplied the pulpit one summer. He read a list of the members of the congregation at that time, which numbered around 110. Four of these people were present last evening.

Music during the evening was rendered by the Epworth M. E. church choir under the direction of Chester P. Reynolds. Miss Helen S. Allen and Mrs. Lillian Andrews Buchner sang special solo numbers.

This evening, the congregation of the East Palestine, O., M. E. church, of which Rev. Herbert Thompson, a classmate of Rev. Joshua in Scotland, is pastor, will have charge of the services. Rev. Thompson will preach and the choir of the East Palestine church will render special music.

Choir practice will also be held this evening at 7 o'clock, under the direction of Mrs. June Bernard, in preparation for the services on Sunday evening. All former members of the choir have been asked to attend the rehearsal this evening.

Increase Work At Leesburg

Mines Are Operating Better Than For Several Years Past

Six hundred men are working steadily at Mines 2 and 5 of the Sharon Coal & Limestone company near Leesburg at the present time, the mines working better now than at any time since the depression started.

Working shifts in both mines are five days per week, seven hours per day, but the mines are operated six days a week, giving a number of additional men employment.

The merchants in the district are feeling the result of the steady working conditions and every day sees long trains of coal leaving the mines for the Pittsburgh district.

Slump In Demand For Liquor Since Pre-Prohibition Days Is Shock To Federal Experts

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, May 10—Folk like Chairman Joseph H. Choate, Jr. of the federal alcohol administration and Supervisor J. M. Doran of the distilling industry can't quite grasp the idea that maybe there has been a vast slump since pre-prohibition days in the national demand for "hard-licker."

Dr. Doran is far better acquitted with alcoholic statistics than Chairman Choate.

Chairman Choate was first, indeed to sound the alarm that, it seems to him, moonshining and bootlegging still must be mighty prevalent despite repeal, but he offered no estimate of the illegal traffic's proportions,

Dr. Doran, who, as the legalized liquor men's chosen representative is vitally interested in the defense of their trade from outlaw competition, furnishes figures. At the present rate, he points out, the annual consumption of legally distilled and marketed drinkables for the current fiscal year threatens to fall short of the last pre-prohibition year's by approximately four-fifths.

This greatly perturbs the doctor (he will be recalled as former chief of dry law enforcement) since he draws the conclusion that the legal concerns he now is working for are losing 80 per cent of the business they consider themselves entitled to monopolize—losing it to operators of illicit stills and their racketteering salesmen.

Individuals of the type of Capt. W. H. Stayton of Baltimore, who was one of the country's most persistent repeal crusaders throughout the whole of the dry era, likewise bitterly resent the liquor trade's failure to yield to the government the revenue they had expected from it following repeal's ratification.

The possibility's error in all these calculations lies, of course, in the chance that liquor consumption really was sharply curtailed while prohibition prevailed (it already was declining when the eighteenth amendment was adopted and that it is not picking up to the extent that was anticipated as a sequel to prohibition's abandonment.

That there is a deal more moonshining, smuggling and bootlegging than before the regime of Volsteadism is unquestioned by most competent authorities, but that 80 per cent of it survives prohibition decidedly is questioned by many of them.

How much contraband was consumed under prohibition was, for the wildest guesswork.

The amount seized furnished the sole basis for a reckoning.

What quantity escaped seizure there naturally was no means of determining.

Dr. Doran himself, whose present interest is to demonstrate that an enormous volume of illegal stuff is available, to the prejudice of the legalized industry, told an altogether different story when in the prohibition enforcement service. At that junction his account was that the traffic was under pretty good control—inasmuch as he was identified with the job of controlling it.

The Choates and Staytons, while somewhat unlike Dr. Doran, inasmuch as they always were wets in principle, nevertheless were particularly concerned in urging repeal for federal revenue's sake—and the revenue is not proving to be what they had hoped for.

Left-over evils from prohibition undoubtedly will take time to eradicate.

Federal, state and municipal greed for tax returns from the legalized liquor trade undoubtedly also by allowing moonshiners, smuggers and bootleggers a wide margin of competitive advantage, are making the ilegal trade hard to deal with

But there are many evidences that the demand for high-powered beverages has declined heavily in the last decade—whether in spite of or because of prohibition.

It's a severe shock, as well to the Dorans as to the Choates and staytons.

They, not only can't understand—they can't believe it.

Shoe Production Of State Better

Increase Over 1933 Is Shown During First Two Months Of Year

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent

During the first two months of this year the Pennsylvania factories turned out 3,009,747 pairs of footwear other than rubber. This increased 20.8 per cent over the 2,491,283 products in January and February of last year. Production of footwear in Ohio increased only 8.9 per cent.

Million Dollars For Warm Springs

Infantile Paralysis Victims Get Huge Fund From President's Balls

WASHINGTON, May 10.—A million-dollar check was received by President Roosevelt last night and turned over to the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation for the relief of infantile paralysis victims.

The check—totaling $1,003,030.98 to be exact—represented the proceeds from the hundreds of Roosevelt birthday parties held throughout the country last January.

Surrounded by trustees of the Warm Springs Foundation and sponsors of the parties in the east room of the White House, Mr. Roosevelt announced the trustees would set aside $100,000 for a nation-wide study of infantile paralysis.

The major portion of the fund—$650,000—will be labeled for research work and study at the Warm Springs (Ga.) institution which the president helped to found.

The remaining $253,030.98 will go for building and maintenance at the Georgia institution.

The check was presented to Mr. Roosevelt by Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, retired, in the absence of Henry L. Doherty of New York, the chairman of the national presidential birthday party committee.

President Roosevelt said he was sorry he couldn't go to the dinner party which the birthday ball committee were holding.

TRAIN DERAILED

(International News Service)

NEW YORK MILLS, Minn., May 10.—Twenty-one persons received treatment today for injuries suffered when three coaches of the North Coast limited crack train of the Northern Pacific, were derailed here.

None of those hurt was seriously injured, physicians said.

Useful new ideas in business are scarcer than most kinds of trained skill.

EXCITED?

You bet! We've got the NEW "G-3"

COME in and see it — the tire that licks the problem of rapid tread-wear!

"G-3" is its name — just an engineer's symbol for the tread that stood up under the toughest punishment the Goodyear test fleet ever gave a tire.

They pounded it over the roads day and night — starting, speeding, stopping — frazzling brakes and wracking cars. And when the reports were in, the "G-3" All-Weather was the winner!

It kept its grip twice as long as competitive tires — gives 43% more non-skid mileage than any previous Goodyear All-Weather!

What a tire! It's the only tire that can keep its non-skid mileage on quick-starting — fast-running — quick-stopping modern cars. And that means more safety — longer non-skid wear on any car.

It costs more to build — but you can buy it today at no extra cost!

Here's what you get in Goodyear's new "G-3"!

You get the broader road contact of a flatter, wider All-Weather Tread.

You get quicker-stopping and the greater road grip of more non-shid blocks in the center.

You get the easy steering and smooth travel of wider riding-ribs.

You get the slow, even wear of closer-nested non-skid blocks and ribs.

You get more rubber in the tread, an average of two pounds more per tire.

—all of which adds up to 43% MORE NON-SKID MILEAGE at no extra cost to you!

Illicit Liquor Battle Starts

Uncle Sam Will Go After Illicit Liquor Industry With Force Of 961 Men

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Uncle Sam's crusade to wipe out the illicit liquor industry was formally started today.

The treasury absorbed the remainder of the prohibition division of the department of justice including a personnel of about 961.

In addition an internal revenue force of more than 700 already has been organized and with the justice department organization will be built up within the next few months to about 4,000.

The internal revenue drive will be aimed principally at the protection of government revenues. A particular campaign will be conducted against illicit liquor distilling. Officials believe the drive will result in many milloins of dollars being turned into the treasury which heretofore had been diverted through illegal operations.

The new internal revenue force will have the duty of collecting close to a half billion dollars in liquor taxes during the coming year. At the rate of collection in April the liquor taxes would exceed $400,000,000 for the approaching 12 months. There has been a steady increase in these taxes since liquor became legal December 5.

Youngstown Police Start Rum Cleanup

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 10.—Following a shake-up of the vice detail in the Youngstown detective bureau, Police Chief Leroy Goodwin announced for the first time since prohibition was repealed, that police will devote their attention to enforcing state liquor laws.

Chief Goodwin promised enforcement after Law Director U. F. Kistler said police could make arrests on state charges, take defendants into Municipal court and the city could collect 50 per cent of whatever fine was assessed.

Plans are being advanced meanwhile by the Youngstown Ministerial association for a meeting next Tuesday, at which leaders hope steps will be taken toward forming a citizens group to "clean up the city."

"Our investigation has revealed much to cause concern," Rev. J. I. Moore, chairman of a special committee of ministers, said. "Legalized liquor, organized vice, Sabbath desecration and rotten politics present a situation challenging the attention of every good citizen."

Mayor Mark E. Moore ordered the shake-up in the vice detail, to which five new men were assigned.

MERCER COUNTY ALIENS GET PAPERS

MERCER, Pa., May 10.—Forty-five aliens were granted citizenship papers at the spring term of naturilization court just ended.

Fourteen cases were continued to the fall term when the applicants will be heard again. One was refused.

Birth Control Fight Starts In Pittsburgh

Rt. Rev. Hugh C. Boyle Bishop Of Pittsburgh Diocese Against Hastings Bill

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 10.—Approval by the Rt. Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese, today stimulated a Catholic campaign against the Hastings bill which would legalize dissemination of birth control information.

Children are the natural result of marriage, Bishop Boyle asserted in condemning contraception as a danger to the security of the nation. The bill, he said, is "opposed by all thinking people."

Wedded couples who do not want to accept the responsibilities attendant on their relations "want to eat their cake and have it, too," Bishop Boyle observed.

Oil City Woman Dies At 102 Years

(International News Service)

OIL CITY, Pa., Death today brought and end to the life of Oil City's grand old lady, Mrs. Amanda Condit Dickey, Venango county's oldest resident.

Had she lived until August 25, Mrs. Dickey would have been 103.

Born to New Vernon, Mercer county, she resided there until 1898 when the family moved to Oil City. They have resided here since.

WASH OUT 15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBES

Win Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vitality

Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. They should pour out thru the bladder 3 pints of fluid a day which contains 4 pounds of waste matter.

If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and vitality, getting up nights, lumbago, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.

If kidneys don't empty 3 pints every day and get rid of 4 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. It may knock you out and lay you up for many months. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . a doctor's prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give quick relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes.

But don't take chances with strong drugs or so-called "kidney cures" that claim to fix you up in 15 minutes. Your common sense will tell you that this is impossible. Treatments of this nature may seriously injure and irritate delicate tissues. Insist on DOAN'S PILLS . . . the old reliable relief that contain no "dope" or habit-forming drugs. Be sure you get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

ROTARIAN HOST ENJOYS GOVERNOR'S BALL

Convention Is Now In Progress

Formal Sessions Bring Many Features Of Interest To Delegates

ROTARY ANNS HAVE TEA AT CASTLETON

A colorful reception and district governor's ball in the Cathedral ballroom last night brought to an impressive close the first convention day of the visiting host of Rotarians and Rotary Anns from most of the 62 clubs of the 33rd convention district.

The Rotary ladies had enjoyed themselves during the first afternoon at a special tea at The Castleton.

Rotary members and their wives and families, together with special guests invited from outside the clubs enjoyed to the full the dancing, card playing, a feature intermission dance show and other entertainment.

Band Concert

Those who arrived at the Cathedral early were treated to a delightful band concert which the Senior high school's uniformed band, with Director J. F. Replogle leading, presented on the veranda. The band appeared through the courtesy of school authorities.

For those who came later a receiving line of distinguished Rotarians and their wives extended formal greetings.

In the receiving line were International Director and Mrs. Arthur B. Mayhew, and young daughter, Anna Lea, of Uvalde, Texas: District Governor and Mrs. Levi H. Beeler, Grove City; President Ralph W. Bolsinger and Mrs. Winifred Bell: Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Rentz and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Seavy.

A popular orchestra played for the dance, while at intermission time at 10 o'clock, a snappy floor show was offered by talented girls from the Brady School of Dancing. Miss Nell Brady directed the revue.

Grand March

A grand march of Rotarians with District Governor and Mrs. Beeler leading, came immediately after the floor show.

In the dining room, where Mrs. Carl E. Paisley and her committees of Rotary Anns had arranged attractive bridge and 500 tables, a large group played as the dancing progressed in the ballroom.

Decorations about the ballroom were fittingly carried out in Rotary's official colors, gold and blue.

Although it had been originally planned to hold club and inter-club dinners at The Castleton early last evening, those plans were changed at the last minute. No separate dinners were held.

Afternoon Program

During the general conference on Wednesday afternoon the delegates heard District Governor Beeler outline the three-day conference plans and listened to an enlightening address on "Pennsylvania" which Stanley Gillespie, Greenville businessman, delivered. President Ralph W. Bolsinger, the conference chairman, occupied the chair while Conference Secretary Carl E. Paisley directed the roll call.

Delivering the principal address of the afternoon, Mr. Gillespie, who left a sick bed to make the appearance, reminded the district audience again of Pennsylvania's reputation as an "industrial titan." He said that the 33rd district could be considered such.

Of Pennsylvania's industries, her mining and quarrying, her schools, her forests, her highways and her numerous natural resources. Mr. Gillespie spoke at length, declaring that "truly she's still the Keystone of the arch of our great nation." He said Pennsylvania has contributed more great financial leaders to the nation than any other state, in periods when the crises were the gravest.

Lauds Home State

"In one day's auto drive from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia you are exposed to more shrines of early American history than in any other spot in any state," the speaker said, recalling again the glorious part which Pennsylvania played as one of the 13 original colonies. He asserted that "the hills of the 33rd district of Rotary have decided for the country a host of her gravest problems, problems which tested the nation in her earlier days."

He termed William Penn the first great Rotarian in the New World, and through the past 250 years, he said, the people of Pennsylvania have made Penn's dream—the dream of a true Rotary ideal—come true.

On the platform in the East lodge room where the assembly took place stood a large basket of beautiful flowers sent with the best wishes of the New Castle Kiwanis Club.

Separate Conferences

With the first general assembly adjourned, newly elected and present club presidents and secretaries went into immediate conference to study their particular problems. Visiting Rotarians led the discussions and visiting clubmen spoke. Dr. E. J. Fithian, Grove City, directed the president's meeting while Earl Miller, Mercer, led the secretaries' forum in the absence of Dr. Arthur L. Hail, Donora.

Both groups continued in session for about an hour and a half while the remaining delegates entertained themselves in various ways.

Conferences for club committeemen were scheduled to be held today.

Today

As On The Planet Mars.

The Old Time Brakeman.

Millions Of Wasted Acres.

Balm For Bankers.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THIS WAS written on board a train, northbound through Florida, and the journey helps to explain how men, or thinking animals like them, may contrive to live on other planets, under conditions of heat, cold and atmosphere that we should call impossible.

YOU SEE that it is very hot, as you look through the car window, but you live in an "air conditioned" environment, the temperature artificially reduced by twenty or more degrees, air washed and freed of dust. The Florida sun of May glares through the car windows, and your compartment is almost too cold.

RAILROAD TRAVEL is not what it used to be before the air-brake days, when railroading was adventure. The engineer would whistle "down brakes," the brakeman would throw open the front door, letting the winter wind sweep through the car, and turn the icy, snow-covered brake wheels with his hands. Those were the days when the greatest railroad president said of Westinghouse, air-brake inventor, "if that man thinks he can stop a railroad train with air, he can't know much about railroading."

Some other great railroad men talk about as intelligently, if you tell them to compete with motor buses and trucks, not by shedding tears, but by using light equipment, in smaller units, going 150 miles an hour, at a quarter of a cent per passenger mile, and less.

They will see that and more wonderful things, as they now see the air-brake working. The streamline train is a beginning.

MILLIONS AND millions of fertile acres, unused, are on both sides of the tracks, through state after state, acres that could feed tens of millions and build up national wealth, as other acres have done, and we keep out ambitious immigration except when it bootlegs itself in.

One million workers from Northern Italy would add billions to the wealth of Florida. Go to California and see what the Italians, Swiss and French have done there.

Who planted the steep slopes of those high hills? They did.

SAMUEL INSULL lands in Chicago, facing prosecution and possibly jail. How many "important respectabilities," safe on their yachts or in their counting houses, might look at Insull and say what the great Bohemian said, looking at a poor drunkard in the gutter: "But for the grace of God, there lies John Huss."

What Insull did, others have done, on a bigger or smaller scale. The market happened to break under them. They happened not to get caught.

THE NEW Stock Exchange law may bring business and balm to worried bankers, that now look upon their pitiful, huge piles of "liquidity," alias ready money, unable to lend it because they are afraid of everything that calls itself "security." That is as bad as having a cow and being afraid to milk her, lest she kick.

The definition of a banker as one who "lends you an umbella when the sun is shining and takes it back when it rains" is not just. The sound banker is one who does not lose his bank's money. How can he lend it, when he has not the faintest idea what anything or anybody is worth and he does not even know what a dollar is worth?

A LAW compelling stock speculators to margin their gambling by forty or more per cent may stimulate bank loans. The banker may say to the specultator and broker: "I'll add twenty per cent cash to that margin, or even forty per cent, because I love you both, only I must have a first lien on the entire business." What could the virtuous, reforming brain trusters do about that?

CONGRESSMAN R. A. GREEN predicts, on a reasonable basis, that a canal across Florida, connecting the Atlantic with the Gulf, would handle greater tonnage than the Panama Canal, within five years after its opening. It should do so within five months, for it would stimulate coast-wise shipping, which is a monopoly of American shipping for a wonder. It would help every state, it would give cheaper transportation to the whole Mississippi Valley, and save millions of miles of useless sailing through the hurricanes around Key West.

"Theodore" ought not to be the only Roosevelt to build a big canal, and leave his mark, forever, on the map of North America.

A TEXAS candidate declares his congressional candidacy anonymously, refuses to give his name, but issues a photograph of himself as a boy six years old, with "button shoes and a suit forty years old," saying, "judge me by this."

That picture is apt to deceive the public. At the age of six almost any human being looks intelligent, honest, pleasing. But forty years of time, politics and scheming often change that.

Even a baby gorilla, or chimpanzee, in infancy looks human, almost as though he might be elected to Congress later. Then his forehead goes back, his paws come out, he's spoiled.

Those whose appearance improves as time passes are rare, although great men are nearly always among the exceptions. For instance, Huxley, Gladstone, Wagner, the late Pope Leo were infinitely more beautiful in old age than in childhood.

GERMANY, OWING private debts to Americans, English and French, plans to pay the English and French, and let the Americans wait, in accordance with a well-established European custom. President Roosevelt is said to have informed Germany that he does not favor this discrimination.

He might stop the German nonsense by informing Mr. Hitler's government that until he treats his American creditors exactly as any others, the ports of the United States will be closed to German products, and, if necessary, to German ships also.

This country doesn't need Europe, and Europe does need this country.

"STEEL" is looking up, the output being at a higher level now than any time since June, 1930.

Incidentally, in Geneva, where world news and war news centers, it is learned that "the nations are strengthening every military branch of their government."

If all this getting ready should end as it usually does in Europe, you would see United States steel production go up fast. Many million ton of iron would be needed for killing.

It is to be hoped that this time our government will not send ten thousand million dollars to enable Europe to pay for her killing machinery, as was done last time.

OF 123,000,000, four million, seventy-eight thousand, six hundred and forty have informed Uncle Sam that they have income tax to pay for 1933. That is half a million more than the 1932 figure. It means more prosperity, also more caution among tax-dodgers.

FRANCE KNOWS that the way to avoid trouble, or, at least, minimize it, is to be ready for it and the French are building "more forts, more airplanes, more tanks, more submarines. Soon they plan to increase the army, which numbers now about half a million actually under arms."

All this is called "A reply to the German Menace."

IF THE UNITED STATES believes, as other countries apparently do, that this second, hideously destructive war is coming, it would do well to make itself independent of other countries, and arrange for conditions that will enable us to produce anything we like, or get along without that which we cannot produce.

One thing is certain, this country will not finance that next war, and will not ship over millions of young Americans to take part in it. Any country that wants to fight with young Americans will have to come over here to do it.

Three In Race For Governor

Reports At Convention Indicate Trio Of Leading Candidates

ELECTION OCCURS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

As the time approaches for the election Friday afternoon of a new district governor for Rotary's 33rd district there appears to be three outstanding candidates who will probably be nominated for the office.

Convention talk focused the spotlight of attention upon Dr. Arthur Hail, a Donora minister; Lawrence Callan, a Franklin businessman, and Al Smith, a contractor of Johnstown.

The district assembly votes on the successor to Dr. Levi H. Beeler, present district governor, following its morning session tomorrow. The polls will remain open from 12 noon until 2.

One of the three named candidates whose name is expected to be submitted to the convention, Dr. Hail, is ill at his home with scarlet fever. He took sick only a short time before the convention opened and was forced to cancel his plans for leading one of its conferences.

Campaign For Memberships Is Makin_ Fine Progress Reports Show

The committee of the Jameson Memorial Ladies' Aide Society met Tuesday evening with Mrs. S. W. Perry, East North street, and reports show that everyone is working diligently in an effort to reach the goal set by the society.

Many streets of the city have not yet been canvassed, therefore the territory was reallocated and if anyone is passed by through oversight they are kindly asked to call Mrs. Reed Megown, Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger or Mrs. Robert White and they will gladly call for the membership, or it can be mailed to Mrs. Megown.

It is hardly necessary to call to the minds of the citizens the urgent need for the success of this drive, as all fully realize the importance of the work done by the Aide Society.

The time of the drive has been extended one week, to May 16, with the final reports to be given Thursday, May 17, at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Marcus Feuchtwanger, Laurel boulevard.

Mrs. Feuchtwanger appreciates the effort that has been made by her aides and she hopes the householders will continue through the coming week to receive the canvassers as graciously as they have been received throughout the campaign.

The day is not far distant until a dog catcher is named and then, and not until then, will dogs, licensed or unlicensed be put on leash. Reports are received daily by police department sergeants describing how canines with mastodonic feet trample garden plants and flowers. The position has been vacant since the resignation of Charles Settle. The dog catcher, when he is appointed, will be given police powers to prevent interference and his pay will come from the ear system. In other words should he capture a dog which the owner will not reclaim the dog catcher will dispatch said canine, send the ears to a state department and receive a certain sum, so reports say.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Sparkling and vivacious—merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Wages and Jobs in Pennsylvania

Shall They Be Destroyed By Our Government For Uncertain Benefits To Southern And Western Agriculture?

Primarily, American purchasing power comes from American wages paid to American workers by American productive enterprises. This is especially true in our own State, whose whole business structure is based upon our diversified industries. The Democratic Administration acknowledged the truth of this principle in the fundamental purposes of N. R. A.

But with appalling inconsistency the Administration now ignores that same truth by attempting to take industrial employment away from Pennsylvania and similar States, and TRANSFER IT TO FOREIGN MILLS AND FACTORIES, in the hope that "in time" this increase of FOREIGN PURCHASING POWER will create larger foreign demand for the cotton, wheat, etc., of our southern and western farmers.

It may be difficult to believe that a Government which has required all industries to shorten hours and increase wages in order to create more employment and greater purchasing power, could follow that up with efforts to destroy some of those same industries and thus add thousands to the ranks of the unemployed.

Yet that is precisely what is being attempted—an attempt that is being fought in the United States Senate right now under the able leadership of Senator David A. Reed.

Ditching American Labor

The proposal before Congress provides that the Executive be empowered to make reciprocal trade agreements with foreign countries, without the advice or consent of Congress, and, as a part of such agreements, to lower existing tariff duties by as much as 50%.

Obviously, and as the Administration has clearly stated, the purpose of this power would be to lower duties on certain products to a point where the American industry would lose its American market and be forced out of business. The American industry would be destroyed, in order to give that work to foreign mills and factories. The work and wages would be taken from American employees and given to the employees of a similar industry in some foreign country.

The idea behind this destructive proposal is, that in the lines selected, only foreign products would be available in the United States, and the American money thus diverted to the payment of FOREIGN WAGES might "in time" result in larger foreign demand for our surplus cotton, wheat, etc.

It is fitting and consistent that Senator Reed should be leading this battle. For if this plan should be put in operation, Pennsylvania would be one of the first States to feel its consequences. And the wholly unwarranted punishment of those who would be robbed of jobs would be reflected and passed on in further injuries to merchants, farmers and other groups.

Yet, Senator Reed's principal opponent for the Republican nomination for United States Senator in the Primary on May 15th, would be supporting this proposal if he were in the Senate now. For he has said repeatedly that if nominated by Republicans, and elected by Republicans, he would support ALL the policies of the Democratic Administration.

The point for Pennsylvanians to consider—and especially for Pennsylvania labor to consider—is this:

MEMBERS OF THE CABINET and other HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE GOVERNMENT have stated frankly that industries which are now supplying big payrolls and large employment in Pennsylvania are slated for the junk-pile if this proposal is adopted and carried into effect.

The Lace Industry Has Been Specifically Listed

There are lace mills in Philadelphia, Chester, Columbia, Wilkes-Barre, Scranton and other points throughout the State. They employ, even in these times, upward of 10,000 persons, with a weekly payroll of well above $100,000.

This is characterized as an "unessential" industry, and "not indigenous to our soil." Yet all of these plants have furnished employment over long periods of time. In Wilkes-Barre, for instance, one mill has been in operation for 50 years; another for 43 years.

But the lace mills of Pennsylvania are not the only ones on this program of destruction. Others are already on the list. And beyond that, this proposal would create a power of life and death over every industry and over the jobs of all industrial workers, and all industry and all labor would be in constant jeopardy.

The American Federation of Labor Is Bitterly Fighting This Proposal

Senator David A. Reed Is Leading That Battle In The U. S. Senate

This is the kind of intelligent, courageous and constructive service that Senator Reed has been giving the people of Pennsylvania for 12 years.

In the Primary, on May 15th, Senator Reed will be a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed himself. We urge you to vote for Senator Reed and thereby help Pennsylvania to retain the advantage our people have in his ability, experience, seniority and position of leadership in the United States Senate.

DOG SEARCH COSTLY

(International News Service)

LAKE MILLES, Ia.—Clarence Westland figures he has spent $1,000 and traveled 3,000 miles in a search for his dog—a large Chesapeake—which was stolen or strayed from the Westland home. The owner inserted advertisements in newspapers all over the state. When anyone thought they had found him, wherever it was, Westland speeded there by automobile.

When its police department came into being more than 100 years ago, London was the most criminal place in the world; there was, on an estimate, one criminal for every 22 of the population in 1828.

Silver Dispute Up To President

Roosevelt Must Settle Impasse Between Morgenthau And Silver Bloc

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1934, By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—President Roosevelt was faced today with the task of compromising an impasse between Secretary of the Treasurer Morgenthau and senate silver leaders over the drafting of the administration's new silver legislation.

Silver bloc leaders privately charged the cabinet officer with "bad faith" in refusing to carry out the President's promises to them for a government declaration in favor of using silver as primary money alongside gold. Armed with this pledge, the silverites expected a prompt agreement on legislation, only to find Morgenthau adamant against such a declaration and in favor of a stilted statement that such a course was the "sense of congress."

The President was cast in the role of peace-maker when senate leaders demanded that Morgenthau lay both their proposals and his own before Mr. Roosevelt for a decision. They expected the President to support their stand. If he failed to do so, the bloc leaders were ready to declare war and start a battle in the senate for mandatory demonetization of silver.

The declaration of silver policy, favored by the bloc, was drawn by Senators William E. Borah (R) of Idaho and Key Pittman (D) of Nevada.

There's something the matter with his product if he can't sell it without knocking the other fellow's.

Jameson Memorial Aide Doing Community Work

We have directed some thought to the practical aspects—the real usefulness—of our work in maintenance of adequate, increasing linen supply for Jameson Memorial Hospital. There are other important features. Among these we take greatest pleasure and pride in the knowledge that we are participating in a great and important community ministry. Our hospital was given to us by David Jameson and his family for the purpose of remedial ministration to the sick and injured and the alleviation of human suffering in our community—alike to the rich and the poor, the white and the colored, the protestant and the catholic, the Christian and the Jew, the religiously inclined and the non-believer.

Jameson Memorial Hospital adheres to its purpose. Our work has been an essential one in this community ministry and we are proud to have played an essential part. We shall continue, and we shall keep pace with the growing ministry to the sick of which we are so happy to be a part. We are asking you to join us with your interest and such money support as you feel able to give.

We sense other elements of usefulness in our work. No hospital worthy of our eager endeavors can stand still. To do so is retrogression. Modern hospitals, like modern medicine, must grow in skill and facilities promoting ever greater security for us all.

Jameson Memorial Hospital is dedicated to progress. It can prophecy NO ultimate goal—there is none but progress. As hospital medicine advances and community need arises our hospital shall be found ready to serve with improved efficiency. In this advancement the State Welfare Department, the Community Chest and Lawrence County join with public spirited citizens of our community to make available to any of us a high standard of hospital care at less than cost—and we do our part. Join us!

Police Work To Save Twin Boys

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 10.—All during the night and in the early hours of today nine husky policemen held death at arm's length.

In the small Brooklyn flat of a jobless clerk, the officers, members of Emergency Squad 13, worked with oxygen inhalators over two six months' old twin boys, who are ill with pneumonia.

The twins, Ross and Roy, are the sons of Peter Barry, who was formerly a clerk, but who has been unemployed for some time.

When medical science was unable to do anything more for the boys the police squad was called in and asked to help keep the twins alive.

The officers, working in relays, are prepared to struggle all day with the inhalators in order to save the twins.

Nabha is a state in the Punjab area of India, ruled by Pratap's father until 1928, when the latter was deprived of his title and income on the ground of disloyal activities.

(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 10.—A new "code" for motorists was in effect here, following concerted action by Mayor Angelo Rossi, Chief of Police William J. Quinn, and Controller Leonard Leavy to end wholesale "fixing" of traffic tags.

From now on, the motorist who seeks to have his parking tag quashed will have to know not only someone who knows someone in the police traffic bureau, but also a friend of a friend of the tax collector.

Tags will be made in triplicate—one copy for the motorist, one for the tax collector, and one for the officer.

Hughes Favors Crime Campaign

Asks Lawyers To Help Supreme Court By Not Filing Cases Devoid Of Questions

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Delinquencies of one state in enforcing its criminal laws "should not be charged to another state and those of the states should not be charged against the federal courts," chief justice Charles Evans Hughes told the American law institute today.

Calling "indiscriminate criticism futile," he said intelligent campaigns for improvement in the administration of criminal justice must be conducted on many fronts, under diverse conditions.

He also told members of the institute, all of whom are lawyers, to help the supreme court to continue to keep abreast of its docket by not submitting applications for reviews of cases which are devoid of any question for the high court to consider. He said these applications are considered by the entire bench, and not by individual members.

Mr. Hughes said the court receives an average of 300 such applications during the summer recess and copies of them are sent to the justices, no matter where they may be, for study.

Stevenson Seeks To Recover Taxes

Claims He Has Been Paying On Property Which He Sold To D. J. Hannon

Edwin S. Stevenson has filed rather an unusual suit at the prothonotary's office against D. J. Hannon in which he seeks to recover $700.63 taxes which he paid on a property which had been sold to Hannon on an article of agreement.

According to the statement of claim Stevenson sold a property at 199 Mills Way in the second ward on October 1, 1923 to Hannon on an article of agreement. The plaintiff also owns other property in the second ward. Through an error in the assessments the property which he had sold to Hannon was still assessed to Stevenson and carried along with his other property.

Stevenson paid the taxes on it from 1924 through to 1933. On Nov. 28th, 1931 Stevenson gave Hannon a deed for the property. It is claimed by the plaintiff that Hannon knew that he, Stevenson had been paying taxes on the property but said nothing. Stevenson claims that under the article of agreement, which he has mislaid or lost, Hannon was to pay the taxes.

Stevenson claims that the taxes which he has paid and which should have been paid by Hannon amount to $700.63.

Witness Relates Story Of Latest Kidnaping

(EDITOR'S NOTE—How two armed and masked men kidnaped William F. Gettle, wealthy retired chain store executive, from his palatial estate, is herewith described by James Wolf, rich furniture man and friend of Gettle. Wolf was one of the guests at the party from which Gettle was "snatched.")

By JAMES WOLF
As Told To An International News Service Staff Correspondent

ARCADIA, Cal., May 10—We had just finished a swimming party. All the guests had gone to the mansion. Mr. Gettle and I went into the bar a the summer house.

The next thing I knew a masked man put a gun in my ribs and said, "Throw 'em up."

A second masked man covered Gettle.

They ordered us to walk quietly outside and warned us:

"We'll kill you if you shout for help."

I had managed to drop my purse containing $250 in the bushes.

Gettle said to the intruders:

"I'll give you all the money I have on me and go into the house for more if you won't take me away."

The kidnapers laughed and one of them said:

"Listen, that won't be enough. This is a kidnaping."

They bound and gagged us with necktles and adhesive tape and tied me to an oak tree.

Then they lifted Gettle, a 200-pound man, to the top of the wall nd he rolled off to the outside.

I heard him groan and think he must have been badly hurt.

They menaced me with their pistols again and said:

"Squawk an alarm in less than an hour and we'll kill you."

They crawled over the top of the wall and loaded Gettle into the automobile and roared away.

I managed to free myself in about 30 minutes and telephoned to the police.

So far as I know no demand has yet been made for ransom.

Castor Oil Decanter Practically Empty

Decanter which contains the castor oil administered to habitual attendants in police court is almost empty. Approximately five doses of three ounces each remain to be served. However, Mayor Mayne today indicated that while the decanter may be nearly empty there is a considerable supply to be had. Some of the imbibants recently have registered objection because there is no "bead" on the castor oil so the mayor may devise ways and means of serving oil with a "bead".

Double Control Program Mapped At Washington

Joe Robinson of Mercer, Pa., Attends Cattle And Dairy Conference

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, May 10.— A double control program regulating both dairy and beef cattle interests today was being developed through a conference of cattlemen with Chester C. Davis, agricultural adjustment head.

The complications caused by the widespread drought are an important factor in any present proposals, Davis pointed out. He is seeking to link dairy herd reduction with the cattlemen's plan for beef cattle production control. Cattle of both types have increased by about 10,000,000 head since 1928.

Plans under consideration include extended purchases by the federal surplus relief corp., eradication of diseased cattle, and use of the federal fund recently approved by congress for surplus stock removal.

Those attending the conference included Joe Robinson, Mercer, Pa.

Home Loan Officer Given Dismissal

Dismissal Of Charles H. Schloss, Of Erie, Pa., Is Announced Today

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., May 10.—Stanley V. Horner, in charge of the state headquarters of the Home Owners Loan corporation office at Philadelphia, announced today the dismissal of Charles H. Schloss as northwestern district manager of the home headquarters here.

Simultaneously with Schloss' dismissal, Horner revealed J. S. Jiulante, Erie office counsel, had been ousted.

This action was taken, Horner said, for alleged irregularities in office.

Complaints made to Washington concerning distribution of patronage and the slowness with which Erie officials acted on applications for loans caused the government to send three investigators here, he disclosed.

Emory Clapper, formerly of McKean; Arthur Moore and Capt. C. P. Barton found 1,900 applications had not been investigated, he stated.

BRANDON FAVORS CANAL

AN OPEN LETTER

May 9, 1934.

Mr. L. G. Genkinger, Pres.,
Chamber of Commerce,
New Castle, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I have carefully studied the proposed waterway in the Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango Valleys. I am convinced that the canal will be a great aid to the business and industrial life of the territory. Believing it to be for the best interests of a majority of the people of this Congressional District and that it can be constructed without undue expense or increased tax burden on the residents of Lawrence and Beaver Counties, I heartily endorse the project.

If elected I pledge my best efforts in Congress to secure the necessary appropriation for the early construction of this waterway.

Sincerely yours,

J. CAMPBELL BRANDON.

Erie Police Are Puzzled

Death Of Frank Seiter, 68, Bar Tender, Keeps Police Guessing

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., May 10.—Detectives of the Erie police department scratched their heads today as they went about their investigation of the mysterious death of Frank A. Seiter, 68, bartender.

The head scratching was caused by a "mystery within a mystery!"

Police asserted Seiter was murdered. Head wounds were held to have been administered by a blunt weapon.

That was before Coroner W. G. Stroble performed his autopsy. Stroble returned his report to police saying the head wounds were insufficient to cause death.

Detectives, however, not to be outdone in their "melerdramer", insisted that they have a mystery. They pointed out they have determined $500 in cash and two diamond rings owned by Seiter were missing. They also said they found a secret exit in the house which solved the apparent mystery of locked doors and windows.

Assistant District Attorney Burton Lamb sided with the coroner. He said he would contend that Seiter fell against the bar rail with a heart attack unless new evidence is uncovered.

The detectives are scratching their heads for ideas.

McSparran Here During Morning

Speaks To Supporters At Meeting In Court House On Issues

Stressing the need for officials who will stem the moral sag in government, Secretary of Agriculture, John A. McSparran spoke in Court Room No. 2 at ten-thirty today. He is a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination on both the Republican and Democratic tickets.

"An amazing situation has developed," said Mr. McSparran. "We find candidates for major state offices including in their platforms the possibility of legalizing gambling, something that not even Matt Quay or Boies Penrose would ever permit."

Speaking on the opening of the Sunday laws he said: "The Pennsylvania legislature cannot repeal the law against an open Sunday for the law is higher than them. They cannot repeal the Fourth Amendment."

Mr. McSparran attacked the vote on the repeal of the 18th amendment and said that the time was here when the voters who believed in moral government should stand together. He also said that if the rumored attempt to count him out in Philadedphia were gone through with, he would run in the fall as an independent candidate.

Six Beauty Queens For This College

(International News Service)

CARLISLE, Pa., May 10.—Six beauty queens instead of one will reign at Dickinson college for the remainder of the year, thanks to Frederic March, screen celebrity.

The student body named twenty-five coeds as eligible for the beauty queen contest and passed their photos along to March who was asked to pick the most beautiful for queen.

March reduced the number to six. These, he decided, were equally beautiful and he refused to be limited to a single selection.

The winners were Barbara Harris, Kathleen Rickenbaugh, Elizabeth Flower, Eleanor Waugh and Dorothy Shearer, all of Carlisle, and Priscilla McConnell, Philadelphia.

Offer Cathedral For Court House

Bondholders Present Proposition To County Commissioners Wednesday Afternoon

Meeting with the county commissioners on Wednesday afternoon a committee representing the first mortgage bond holders who hold the bonds of the Cathedral offered to sell the Cathedral to the county for use as a combined City-County building and community center.

The commissioners heard the offer of the bond holders committee but no commitments were made. It is understood that the price mentioned for the purchase was $600,000. It is estimated that a jail could be erected for $100,000 and remodeling of the building would run about $200,000.

If the offer were accepted it is the idea of the committee representing the bond holders that there would be adequate space for court and county purposes as well as city purposes. Enough space would be reserved for use of the fraternty occupying the building.

The site occupied formerly by the Rosena furnace has been rejected by the court so that at present time there is no site that has been recommended. The county commissioners have the matter under advisement.

Dr. Botwin says:

DO YOU KNOW?

That many people subject themselves to serious conditions by wearing loose fitting plates. Many people have had their false plates for many years and have not given the thought whether the plate fits or is it too large.

Conditions such as Cancer, Epulis, and Tumors result from the irritation of ill fitting plates. Many patients are wearing temporary plates for years and are accustomed to them but the true fact remains that the gums have receeded and the plate now cuts into the soft tissue and muscles where the recesssion has taken place.

By constant irritation to these soft tissues the various growths are stimulated.

If you have such a condition in your own mouth have it corrected immediately.

Many cases may be relined with little expense, others may be reset which also does not involve a great deal of money. Do not let such conditions attack your health.

QUESTION.

Is it harmful to wear a loose fitting plate?

McLarnin Does Not Like Idea Of Prize Fights

"I Am Just In Boxing Game To Make Money," Says Fighting Irishman

MEETS BARNEY ROSS ON MAY 28

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, May 10.—The young man has taken his share of a million dollars out of as many box offices as he cares to favor with his patronage. He's been feted, sought after, publicized, lionized and pandered to. His method has been one of marked simplicity and, withal, no great strain on the features, the bosom and the intellect. He just hits them and leaves them. Yet James Archibald McLarnin, the welterweight champion, said a very strange thing today. He said he didn't really like prize fighting.

Just Drudgery.

I'm reminded of George Owen, the all American backfield man from Harvard, who spent four years running, passing, reversing, backing up the line. But when the last game was done, he sneered at the pastime in a well-bred way. It wasn't fun, said he. It was drudgery.

To McLarnin, fighting is more than both and, at the same time, neither. It's business; just that, business. So many hours a day, so many days a year. A few minutes or a few rounds in the ring. Somebody wins, somebody loses. Somebody is always doing one thing or the other in thousands of business offices throughout the country every day in the year.

Strictly Business.

What, then, isn't business with him? Dietetics. Exactly, dietetics. Not one dietetics. Two or more. I expect to hear any day now that Babe Herman has always been a great hand with orchids.

"No, I get no kick out of fighting," McLarnin said today, in his serious way. "I know I'm Irish and that they're supposed to be a nationality that fights for fun. But there's nothing in pleasure fighting and, besides, this is different. This is the ring and it's strictly a business proposition."

This, however, was only one of several matters the young man wished to confide.

Study Medicine.

Another was that Barney Ross, the lightweight champion, and his opponent here the end of the month, had become, according to inside information, a welterweight; whereas he, James Archibald, now weighed less than 147 and expected to do 144 the night of the fight.

But what about these plural dietetics?

"Why," says he, as though surprised that I should keep mentioning a matter so commonplace, "I'm not finished with the ring yet. But, when I am I may study medicine."

And here I'd always thought this fellow was a pretty plain ball of twine!

Cangey was injured last fall at Rochester, Pa., while repairing a tire. He was a lightweight boxer of this city.

Bradley Will Enter Horse In Preakness Race

For First Time In Several Years Colonel Bradley Will Invade Eastern Track

(International News Service)

BALTIMORE, May 10.—For the first time in several years, Col. E. R. Bradley, the Kentucky horseman, and thrice winner of the Derby, probably will not have a starter in the historic Preakness Stakes to be contested here Saturday.

The Kentucky sportsman's trainer, William Hurley, announced if Bradley was to start his eligibles, Bazaar, Blue Again or Baker's Dozen, he would have sent instructions by now.

It appeared today there will be about nine starters in this eastern classic. Whether Cavalcade, the sensational Derby winner this year, will start is still undetermined. Bob Smith, trainer for Brookmeade Stables, owners of the English bred colt, reserved his decision until Friday.

Cavalcade To Run

Cavalcade will be given a workout tomorrow and if his victory last Saturday did no apparent harm, Smith probably will send him to the post in an effort to duplicate the feats of Sir Barton, Gallant Fox and Burgoo King, the trio who turned the trick of winning both the Derby and the Preakness.

Even is Cavalcade does not start Smith has a strong hand with High Quest and Time Clock.

Other probable starters are Alfred Gwynnee Vanderbilt's discovery, who ran second to Cavalcade in the Derby; Mrs. F. J. Heller's Agrarian; Greentree Stable's Spy Hill; Northway Stable's Riskulus, the Western hope; Mrs. F. A. Carreaud's Time Supply; C. Willing's Swiftport and H. P. Metcalf's Snappy Story.

Sowersby Is Titan Tennis Coach; Campbell, Captain

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, May 10.—Francis S. Sowersby, instructor in business administration at Westminster College and a certified public accountant in New Castle, is the coach of the varsity tennis team at Westminster this season. Everett Campbell, Youngstown, O., has been elected captain of the team.

Coach Sowersby announces that, in addition to the regular eight-match schedule, the Youngstown Collegians, former tennis stars of Big Ten schools, will play the Titans at New Wilmington on Friday afternoon, May 11.

The ranking of the Titan players, following the initial match with Slippery Rock, is: Robert Grier, Pittsburgh, No. 1; Art Brownell, Shaker Heights, O., No. 2; Captain Everett Campbell, Youngstown, O., No. 3; Hugh McCall, Youngstown, O., No. 4; Ray Elliott, Johnstown, No. 5. Others on the squad include Robert Maxwell, Wilkinsburg; and Geoffrey Scwash, New Wilmington.

Next week the Titans play Duquesne at Pittsburgh on Monday; Geneva at home, Tuesday; Allegheny at home, Thursday; and Duquesne at home, Friday. Slippery Rock will be played at Slippery Rock on May 22; Allegheny at Meadville, May 23; and Geneva at Beaver Falls, May 30.

Babe Ruth Hits Seventh Homer

New Lively Ball Produces 15 Home Runs In Games Played In Big Leagues Wednesday

PIRATES LOSE TO PHILADELPHIA

By GENE LAWRENCE
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, May 10.—Prior to the start of the season the baseball magnates announced that the 1934 Major league ball would differ little, if at all, from its 1933 predecessor. Under questioning the moguls admitted that perhaps the new spheroid would be a little more lively, but not enough to make any real difference. Oh, No!

These statements were greeted by titters (mild titters, it might be added) from the experts who have had to listen to the magnates for lo, these many years. During the spring training season, when base-hits began to resound from every fence in the citrus circuit, the titters grew to subdued laughter. Today the subdued laughter has become openly and frankly a derisive roar.

No less than 15 home runs were made in eight games yesterday, or almost two per contest. If the 1934 ball were any livelier they'd sell it for a bullet.

Home Run Circus

Headlining the home run circus were the Cubs and the Dodgers who clashed in Chicago. No less than seven round trippers resulted during the course of the battle, which eventually went to the Cubs by a score of 10 to 9. The losers got four of the big swats and the winners three. The names of the pitchers who participated in this epic are left unmentioned in consideration of their sensibilities.

In St. Louis, where the fences are short, there were, paradoxically, no home runs in th' game between the Giants and the Cardinals. Dizzy Dean, held the champion Giants to five scattered hits and blanked them 4 to 0.

The Boston Braves gave an exhibition of plain and fancy slugging in Cincinnati and the Reds lost another game, this time by a score of 10 to 3.

Ruth Hits Homer

In the other National league game, between the Phillies and Pirates at Pittsburgh, Curt Davis, a young right-hander from San Francisco, proved his mettle under big league fire and the Quakers won by a score of 6 to 2.

Of course, no home run story would be complete without mention of Babe Ruth. It is our good pleasure to report that the Babe got his seventh round tripper of the young season yesterday. The blow was not enough to give the Yankees a victory over the Browns, however. Hornsby's charges scored 5 runs in the ninth inning to win by a score of 9-8.

Indians Lose

At Boston the Red Sox nosed out the Detroit Tigers, 5 to 4.

Jimmy Dykes, the new manager of the Chicago White Sox, apparently has succeeded in injecting some ambition into his charges, for the Sox came to life and smashed out an impressive 8 to 1 victory over the Senators at Washington.

The Cleveland Indians collected twelve hits from three Athletic hurlers, but this wasn't enough to give them the ball game. The Mackmen pushed over a run in the tenth inning to break a tie and cop the contest, 5 to 4.

SPYING ON SPORTS

Back in 1922, when Warren Harding was still president and young Babe Ruth was just beginning to earn his salt as a New York Yankee, an enthusiastic golfer from St. Louis, Mo., one George Herbert Walker, decided that his favorite sport ought to have some sort of international team trophy such as the Davi cup in tennis.

The Davis cup started out as a bauble to be battled for by various English-speaking nations. However, before Dwight Davis, who donated the silver bowl, realized it the cup had done almost as much traveling as Floyd Gibbons—having visited the United States, England, Australia and France and, once or twice, nearly taking a trip to Japan.

Anyway, Walker offered the Walker cup trophy as a trophy to be played for by American and English amateur teams every other year. When it was accepted for competition he naturally figured he had started another international trophy on its way around the world.

That was where the generous Mr. Walker was in grave error.

The Walker cup, though an "international" trophy, has never departed from the United States save for those brief occasions when it was placed in view, as it is this week, on some courses in the British Isles while an American team is licking the stuffing out of their English cousins.

There have been seven Anglo-American battles for the Walker cup and the United States has won all of them. They are expected to win the eighth struggle—soon to start on the course of the Royal and Ancient Golf club near St. Andrews, Scotland.

The closest the British have ever come to winning were in 1923 and 1926 struggles when the score was 6½ to 5½ in favor of Uncle Sam's niblick-nephews. Last time—1932—the United States won 9½ to 2½.

This year's Walker cup battle will have almost as many side attractions as a three-ring circus.

Three national champions will be in the competition—Johnny Goodman, American open; George T. Dunlap, Jr., American amateur, and the Honorable Michael Scott, British amateur champions. Also Scott, a 55-year-old veteran, may be seen in competition against H. Chandler Egan, the American team's 50-year-old golfing dean.

Thus there are several possibilities of champ versus champ or vet against vet battles if the draw creates a Scott-Goodman or a Scott-Dunlap or a Scott-Egan singles struggle.

Most interesting fact of the 1934 series is the good chance the British have to win for the first time. Among their men the Britons will present Scott, the great Roger Wethered, Cyril Tolley, T. A. Torrence and other Anglo-Saxon golfers whose fame is well known on this side of the Atlantic.

Probably the greatest help that the hair can have comes from a good digestion, a sound nervous system and long hours of sleep.

Stock Market Under Pressure

Selling Features Opening Of Market; Silver Situation Has Effect

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, May 10.—The stock market broke 1 to 4 points to new lows for the year today in a rush of selling which sent the ticker 4 minutes behind.

The new outburst of liquidation followed Washington dispatches that a deadlock existed between the silver bloc and the administration over the proposal to remonetize the white, metal, the treasury opposing any mandatory legislation to nationalize silver.

Added to this was the failure of the market to continue the rally which got underway on Tuesday and the possibility that the senate would tighten up the regulation bill, hitherto considered conservative in comparison with the measure passed by the house.

Rails, motors and farm equipment led the break, followed closely by the steels, industrials and the equipments. There was some support of the break but the market showed little rallying power, short covering bringing the only snapback.

Tumbling prices for stocks were accompanied by a break in silver, a further decline in rubber and cotton, and weakness in speculative bonds. The dollar was firm against foreign currencies.

The market was under pressure from the opening. This was followed by heavy selling of General Motors and Chrysler, and the whole list gave way. Scores of important issues went to new lows for the year.

Tube Mill Has Largest Payroll For Three Years

Over $200,000 In Cash Paid Out Employes Of Plant Here On Wednesday

CALL OUT MORE OF FORMER EMPLOYES

ELLWOOD CITY, May 10.—Conditions have been taking a general up-ward trend in Ellwood City during the past several weeks. The local merchants, who are not too optimistic, even admit that business is much better and seem a more cheerful lot.

But the most convincing result of this upward trend in business and manufacturing, was the semi-monthly pay at the local National Tube Company yesterday. The largest single semi-monthly payroll in three years was recorded Wednesday. Over $200,000 in cash was paid out to the plant's many employees. For a month the payroll is greatly in excess of $300,000, General Supt. J. W. Offutt stated this morning.

Coupled with this good news is the fact that more of the older former employees are being called back to work. Mr. Offutt stated that these men are being put on at the power house to help increase production.

Rumors that the tube plant was planning to go on a six hour day soon were quieted by Mr. Offutt who stated that the plant will operate under the plan it has recently adopted and has been using.

Seeking Lower Bond For Insull

Continue Effort To Secure Release Of Insull From Jail

HABEAS CORPUS TO BE ARGUED

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, May 10.—Whether the $200,000 bail fixed for Samuel Insull shall be reduced sufficiently to enable his friends to get him out of jail on bond will be thrashed out today in the United States circuit court of appeals.

Judge Will M. Sparks will hear arguments on a writ of habeas corpus to determine whether Insull's bail should be cut.

Insull himself will not appear in court. His attorney, Floyd E. Thompson, said the defendant preferred not to go into court because of the fatigue it would cause him. Government officials held a consultation and decided his presence would not be necessary.

However, if Judge Sparks reduces the $200,000 bail, Insull may appear in court later in the day to sign a surety bond which would give him his freedom pending his trial.

Thompson said that many of Insull's friends are coming to the front with offers of assistance in the matter of raising funds. The offers are coming chiefly from persons of limited financial resources, he added.

Indications are that the trial of Insull will be a lengthy procedure. Dwight H. Green, United States attorney, declared that the former utilities magnate will be tried first on the charge of using the mails to defraud which the government regards as the stronger of the two charges against Insull.

Green said it will require a month for the government to present its case and it probably will take another month to prosecute the second charge of violating the federal bankruptcy laws.

The defense will require fully as much time, it is believed.

Road Construction With Federal Funds Lagging In State

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 10.—Pennsylvania continues to lag behind other states in the rapidity with which road construction is being commenced under the public works program, according to figures made available by the Association of State Highway Officials.

On May 5, Pennsylvania had awarded contracts obligating only 86.5 per cent of the $18,891,004 highway apportionment to the state under the PWA. Twenty-one states had commenced projects calling for greater percentages of their money than the Keystone State. In Kansas and Connecticut, for instance, 99.8 per cent and 99.6 per cent, respectively, had been oligated by contracts.

Ohio ranked near the top of the state list, having awarded contracts covering 94.6 per cent of the state highway money. West Virginia followed close behind Pennsylvania, with 85.3 per cent of the road fund called for by contracts awarded.

In the country as a whole, contracts had been granted calling for 81.6 per cent of the public works road money, an average slightly below the Pennsylvania record.

Waters Speaks To Merchants

Addresses Retail Merchants Convention At Harrisburg On Finances Of State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, May 10—"We are facing a dismal chapter in the fiscal history of the commonwealth," State Treasurer Charles A. Waters today warned the merchants of Pennsylvania.

Addressing the Pennsylvania Retailers Association, Waters pointed out that unless revenues increase by $1,250,000 a month for the remainder of the biennium, the commonwealth's budget will be $21,000,000 in the red by June 1, 1935.

First to suffer under the decision of the state supreme court in the Talbot act case will be the state-aided institutions, whose non-preferred appropriations must be slashed to balance the budget, he said.

Waters was invited to give the retailers a picture of the state's financial condition as a basis upon which they would form battle lines to oppose another sales tax which the state treasurer told them would undoubtedly be among the revenue raisers proposed at the next session of the legislature.

He reiterated his oft-repeated demands for modernization of state and local governments, inferentially rapped the new deal for its paternalistic tendencies and called for government economies. He said:

"What price government is squarely before our taxpayers today and they alone have the answer. We all enjoy the paternalism of local, state and federal governments, and if it does not stop with our health, safety, and education, it is perfectly all right with us."

REED-PINCHOT BATTLE IS HOT

Pittsburgh Managers In Demand For Probe Of Campaign Expenses

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, May 10.—While the principals in the Reed-Pinchot senatorial fight hurled bombshells on the eastern horizon, their Pittsburgh campaign managers provided the fireworks that illuminated the western front today.

Charges and counter-charges came from all angles as cries for a senate investigation of caimpaign expenses pierced the primary atmosphere.

Horace J. Thomas, Jr., Pinchot chieftain in Allegheny County, inaugurated the battle which so far has not exceeded the verbal stage with the announcement that he would demand an investigation of Senator David A. Reed's campaign expenditures.

"Investigation is already under way to trace the source of the funds that are being used to corrupt the ballot and defile the election," Thomas asserted.

Probe Expenses Of Both

Raymond D. Evans, leading the Reed attack here, met this outburst with the challenge that Thomas ask for a probe of the expenses of both Reed and Gov. Gifford Pinchot.

Pleding his co-operation in presenting all the facts, Evans declared:

"I demand that the senate investigate the assessment of state payrolls for campaign funds for Pinchot and the use of state employes in the Pinchot campaign."

He then recited several instances in which he contended state employes were spending their time promoting the candidacy of the chief executive.

While the activities of Governor Pinchot and Reed grabbed the spotlight in the Republican field, organization Democrats prepared for the climax of their campaign here tonight.

Candidates bearing the approval of the state committee were here for a huge mass meeting. They included Joseph F. Guffey, Pittsburgh, a candidate for U. S. Senator; George H. Earle, Philadelphia, candidate for governor; Thomas Kennedy, Hazleton, candidate for Lieutenant Governor; and Chester H. Rhodes, aspirant to the superior court.

Ordained in Chicago in June 1880, the Rev. William Schulzke has just completed 50 years as pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church at Springfield, Ill.
